Preface

This is the best of my dark poetry, six books in all, written during the last 15 years. This book of songs was put together at the request of a musician friend of mine who was looking for songs. I thought, I may as well put it online and see if others are interested.

There are two sections, the normal songs which could be adapted into any style, and the rap/heavy metal section. That last section does not mean that the songs really need to be rap or heavy metal songs, however they appear to be better spoken than sang, or they are a bit more extreme, in the spirit of rap/heavy metal songs.

If you are interested in turning these into songs, even modify them for your needs, and perhaps recycle many good lines from different songs to make new ones, please contact me and we will come to an arrangement.

Though this is copyrighted work, you can distribute them around for free with my name and contact details on them, and even put them online elsewhere as long as you link them to my website. If you turn them into songs, I will then have to be recognized as the author, or co-author if you wish to modify or add to them.

Part 1 – Any Style Songs

It always comes back to that, isn't it?

(chorus:)

It always comes back to that, isn't it?

Oh yes it does

Dear me

I've seen it comin'

I always do

What is it this time?
What is this big secret which will again
Devastate me?
Irretrievably change my life
To keep me exactly where I am now
Where we've always been?

It always comes back to that, isn't it?

Oh yes it does

Dear me

I've seen it comin'

I always do

Oh please!

Can we live this life without anymore downfalls?

Is it not possible to live a life

Of total inaction?

All you need is one day

To destroy it all

When all we have ever been able to reach

Is the bottom of the ocean

Deeper and deeper

It always comes back to that, isn't it?

Oh yes it does

Dear me

I've seen it comin'

I always do

No matter how hard you try

To reach some sort of happiness

Just for a while

It can never last

You get right back to square one

Always

It always comes back to that, isn't it?

Oh yes it does

Dear me

I've seen it comin'

I always do

Another disaster

Another crisis

Some suffering

A lot of crying

Once again completely lost

Alone in the world

With great unexplored vastness in front of our eyes

Wishing we could fly and reach it all

Discover a new horizon

Less horrible than the precedent

As a law of nature

We can only find

Worse

It always comes back to that, isn't it?

Oh yes it does

Dear me

I've seen it comin'

I always do

It always comes back to that, isn't it?

Yes, it always comes back to that

It always comes back to that, isn't it?

Yes, it always comes back to that

There's no way out for people like us...

There's no way out for people like us...

There's no way out for people like us.

Summary

Reaching an L.A. Crisis

Los Angeles
Crisis Mode
Panic Attack
Here we are
The End of Days
Just like in the movies
It was all true after all
I can't think anymore!
I can't breathe anymore!
I've reached another
L.A. Crisis

California
Crisis Mode
Panic Attack
Right here on Hollywood Boulevard
Dying on the street in Burbank
How was that a surprise?
They were all born here
They all died here
The legends
Drunk to full capacity
Drugged to full capacity
This is where Hollywood drove them all
Over the cliff

Hollywood
Crisis Mode
Panic Attack
The End of Days
For me to discover now
To understand
To assimilate
To digest
The enormity of it
The enormity of it all

I will accept my destiny
I will go through it all
I will live through hell
But
I will survive
My L.A. Crisis

Summary

My new big venture will destroy everything

(chorus 1:)

This time I will hit it big
Yes I will

Another big crazy idea
Just have to pursue it
Until it drains all my energy
And destroy just about Everything else that is still standing in my life

My new big venture!
It will revolutionize everything
Once again
Never mind that none of my other big ventures
Never went anywhere

(chorus 2:)

Maybe
Just Maybe
One day
It will revolutionize everything

It will be huge
It will change everything
By destroying
Just about

Everything else
Still standing
In my life...

Maybe
Just Maybe
One day
It will revolutionize everything

I won't stop now!
I have another big venture idea
That will change everyone's life
For the worst
It is in the nature
Of every new big venture

This time I will hit it big
Yes I will

Just have to be crazy enough
To sacrifice everything
For just any
New great big venture

Maybe
Just Maybe
One day
It will revolutionize everything

This time I will hit it big
Yes I will
I know it
Yes I do

Yes I will
I know it
Yes I do

Yes I will

I will

Will

My Imaginary Girlfriend

She is legendary

She is powerful

Intelligent

My imaginary girlfriend

She wants it all the time

She begs for more

She wants to please me all the way

Just as well

Being so unremarkable

That my imaginary girlfriend

Is just imaginary

She's filthy rich

More successful than Madonna

And pure of heart

My imaginary girlfriend

I can depend on her

I love her and she truly loves me

She even knows how to shut up

Just as well

Being so unremarkable

That my imaginary girlfriend

Is just imaginary

She does not smoke

She does not drink
She's certainly not a drug addict
My imaginary girlfriend

She's not a bitch
She's not killing me
She does not need to be shot in the head
My imaginary girlfriend

Just as well
Being so unremarkable
That my imaginary girlfriend
Is just imaginary

Summary

Are You Still My Friend?

Oh dear, oh dear
What have I done?
I offended you
I stole everything from you
I understood the whole of your miserable life
I took pity on you

Oh dear, oh dear
What have I done?
You're my best friend, my only friend
I love you more than you could imagine
I thought that you were mine and no one else's
But you have a life I know nothing about

Oh dear, oh dear
What have I done?
I did not mean to
I've destroyed everything
In less time than it took to establish this impossible friendship

At least you know me, I was wild from the beginning

Oh dear, oh dear

What have I done?

Could this be the end of that friendship?

Is it impossible to forgive whatever it was?

Are we going to be strangers even in the promised land?

It depends entirely on you

Oh dear, oh dear

What have I done?

Summary

Ready to Explode

I've got a headache

No problem

Just all my energy

Ready to explode

I've got this urge in me

To make another world from this world

Look, it's there, it's here . . .

A real world!

I'm not mad

I'm not dead

I've got all this for you

And it's ready to explode

You won't have time to see

Won't have time to hear

Even though it's all around you

I'm ready to explode

I'm going to inspire the masses

I'm inspiring the masses
With whispers
As powerful as guns
Come on, come on!
I'm alive!
I cry out to life!
We're going to create this world!

We're motivated enough to get somewhere
To build a new world
Recreate an earthly paradise
You've heard me!

Get going!
There are still things to inspire you in this world
Things to save lost souls
We can't forget that hell is waiting to explode

Can't forget who we are Our humble origins can become great
Be proud of what we represent
And fulfil a great destiny

Enough of self-absorption
Self-pity
We are as huge as the universe
We are the universe!

Ready to explode!

Summary

Freedom

There's a life after life
An existence after what they've made us see
It's strong and powerful!

It's all the energy necessary to be born

It's the sum of all the good songs
Of all the marginal personalities
It's what inspires people to achieve the impossible
It's what makes a people a great people

This infinite urge will be born in all nations of the universe
An enormous structure free from the shackles of the past
An extraordinary new inspiration
We'll march all over the surface of the universe!

Understand the infinite capacity of everything
Understand the infinite definition of the world
Assimilating the whole world
Assimilating universal knowledge

Nothing will stop our progress through civilisations
No law, no ambitious wretch
No civil duty
We'll live and live and live in total freedom!

The freedom to breathe
The freedom to act
The freedom to be Freedom!

Poetry to Galvanise a Whole Generation

There was a time when poetry saved lives
A time when a young man would travel the roads of France
To look for adventure on the open sea
Calling up a whole world of the imagination
And rejecting all convention
That was poetry to galvanise a whole generation

Now is the time when poetry saves lives
A time when the young travel the roads of the world
To look for adventure on the open sea
Calling up a whole world of the imagination
And rejecting all convention
That's poetry to galvanise a whole generation

There will be a time when poetry saves lives
A time when the young will travel the roads of the world
To look for adventure on the open sea
Calling up a whole other world
And rejecting all convention
That will be poetry to galvanise a whole generation

Our Terrible Sentence

Forgive me God for I have sinned
I thought in my madness that I could save the world
I thought I could make a difference
I thought I had the power to change things

They deported me
They put me in prison
They stripped me of all the rights I'd been granted
They stripped me of all the hope I'd built up for myself

I deserve it
I was deaf
I was blind
I wasn't up to it
Now I'm silent
Now I'm invisible
Now I'm dead
Is that what you want?

Now there can be no pardon
No possible understanding
No magic vision
In my mind you're dead

Oh God, how your logic puts us in the wrong
How your will fails to move us
How your wisdom is unknown to us
My sentence is that of humanity

We've all sinned
We've all thought we could save the world
We've all thought we could make a difference
We've all thought we had the power to change things

We all failed
Our terrible sentence

Summary

Genesis

Have they even got any hope in life?
Any joy in seeing daylight fill space?
Are they still thinking about science, philosophy and politics?
Do they think they'll discover psychology one day, late in the evening?
And has the wonderful world of money yet been born?
It's called the world of marketing and sales
With project managers and managing directors
God must have created these things as irony or as vengeance

Once I saw a garden
Radishes, carrots, tomatoes
Earth and flowers
I didn't see the advent of the business world written in the stars
Nor that of political wretchedness

I see the joy of someone who knows and can do nothing
Who walks free from every plague, every thought
Going out with no pressure, no qualifications
And walking all day without thinking about anything at all
A world that's forgotten his existence
A world that doesn't think any more
But lives and breathes

I walk in the wind
Learn to unlearn
To forget whatever we've tried to understand
Free myself from these machines and this noise
Flee from people running in all directions
I'm in quest of inaction
I want total emptiness
I want to live

Summary

They all killed in your name

Oh God!
They were all born in their own little world
They all interpreted your existence according to their own ideas
They all wrote their own bible and believed in it
They all thought they knew everything
They all thought they were right
They all waged war to impose their own ideas
They all killed in your name

Oh God!
Did you want so many nations and such wretchedness?
So many births and deaths?
Can pardon, absolution, ever come from all this hell?
We're born, we die, just where we are Freedom of thought has never motivated us
We all have our own laws, our own ways of doing things

They all waged war for their own ends
They all killed in your name

Oh God!

Didn't you want us to convert our enemy?
Didn't you want us to understand our enemy?
Didn't you want us to help our enemy?
Didn't you want us to love our enemy even if he kills us?

They all waged war
They all killed in your name
They're all guilty
You probably wanted anarchy on earth?

Summary

Living in Infinity

I wanted to achieve great things
And I achieved them

I wanted to love the world
And I loved it

I wanted to travel over the oceans of the universe
And I travelled there

I wanted to understand the universe
And I understood it

I wanted to create wonderful things
And I created them

You don't understand!
I've done everything
Loved everything
Understood everything
Created everything

But God's work is never done
It's always ongoing
And all the more majestic for that It's infinite
And I lack the energy

I lack the energy to achieve great things
To love infinitely
Understand infinitely
Create infinitely

I lack the energy to live in infinity

Summary

Life Isn't Life

Who's looking for life?
Is there life in this world?
I've been searching for it all my life
Late at night in the streets of the world
And I can now say
Death is the whole world
Death is in everything
Death is everywhere

So I can't speak this language
So I'm here in this world without the right to life
And I still find a way of expressing myself
On all the oceans of this planet
There's no land which can support life
Only hell
Words have no meaning
No way of expressing what I feel
The result of so many years of ordeal
Has only brought despair

In a world where I've got everything
It's still not enough
I'm dying

Summary

I Don't Remember

I wrote some twenty-five volumes on the subject
You didn't listen to a word
You produced a work on inspiring politicians
I didn't listen to a word
You wanted to revolutionise everything, thought your nation great and glorious Nobody listened

I wanted to study something interesting in your universities
You didn't listen to a word
You wanted my support and hard work
I didn't listen to a word
You wanted to tear my country apart to be born among the nations of the universe
Nobody listened

I wanted to play my part, I wanted to be what I am
You didn't listen to a word
You scolded me for my way of life, for not being part of my nation
I didn't listen to a word
Now you've got need of new blood because you're dying
Nobody will listen to you again

Summary

Make a Difference

It's always possible to leave those you love
It's always possible to follow other paths

It's always possible to challenge everything from morning to night
It's always possible to begin to live again

Be happy and free!

Create your own universe, even if you have to rewrite all the dictionaries
You'll be surprised at the results you can achieve
A personal success going well beyond what anyone else has hoped

It's possible to make your life over again!
It's possible to build a new world!
It's possible to succeed according to your own principles!
It's possible to be happy!

Being marginal has never been forbidden
Losing the respect of others has never been a problem
Saying that others are wrong is acceptable
Making a difference is something to be wished for

The only thing that counts is the final reckoning at the end of our lives
The only results that count are those we've wanted to achieve ourselves
We must free ourselves from everyone else
Be marginal and make a difference

Summary

God my darling

Oh God my darling
You will see tonight what motivates a man
To continue in this world
Cos' it is to us to build it
Oh God, don't let me down

How nice it is to be on top of the world again
Knowing everything there is to know about everything
Did you know you could know beyond the horizon
All the things you used to know

All thrown out the window

Oh dear

There is always another way to see things

To interpret reality

Oh god knows if without it I would not be alive

To talk about it without talking about it

God my darling

You will see tonight what motivates a man

So many songs could motivate you tonight

So many people that could electrify you

And you are thinking of death

Smoking cigarettes until you spit blood

Drinking until you cannot see anymore

Did you have dreams?

Did you think you could change the world?

I do

I have the most wonderful dreams

I am changing the world

I am

Though I do not think anymore

Of wonders and peace and infinities

The horse has spoken

Destroyed my ideals

No matter

What good are ideals when you have the dream?

I won't sleep tonight

I will be awake and talking about what matters most

To drive you crazy

I will open your eyes

I will open your eyes to the real world

Being the driving force behind a nation

Thinking of new ways to be immortal

Deepest sights and glories

I'll show you, make you understand
That you do not see and do not understand
My deepest thoughts
Frightening views of the underworld
What is happening to this world without your knowledge
Isn't that great

You will see tonight what motivates a man
To continue in this world
Cos' it is to us to build it
Oh God, don't let me down

God my darling
You will see tonight what motivates a man

Summary

I am out of this world

Wasteland
Vast wasteland in front of you all
All you were ever able to produce and protect till death
It contains your life story
Your information in the making
DNA lost and lost and lost in and around
Like a slinky going through the heavens
The snakes walking in the spiral of your downfall
3D world for 2D people in a 1D thinking process
Oh shit, have I said too much for your poor mind?
You don't see
You don't understand
Because I don't want you to
I am killing myself over you
I am killing myself for you
I am the person who will injure you for what you represent

I am the rebel of your destiny

Your useless destiny
I don't need my 15 minutes of fame
To communicate that to you in a way that will never reach you
It is exploding in your face
You have never tried
To see beyond matter
Foolish destiny
You do not have the freedom of decision
You never had
Where you are now and where you are going was not written
It is happening and will happen without your consent, without your decisions
It had to be, there is no other way
Where you are going now is computable
It obeys mathematical equations and there is no freedom of thought
Even I cannot free myself from it
Why bother then? God only knows
How sad must it be to know that we had no other choice than be stupid
Obeying some sort of laws of irrationality beyond comprehension
Cannot commit suicide because there is no other way
Cannot be intelligent because there is no other way
You follow your own course, you cannot deviate
You do not choose
You do not really think
It was predetermined by nobody
That nobody that has the last laugh though it serves no purpose
Philosophy was going to happen one day
It was nice to think it meant something
Obviously it never meant anything
How else would you know exactly what will happen tomorrow?
There is no free will in this world
It is a pointless world
Can't commit suicide, it was not written in the stars
Unfortunately

Summary

Presque vu (Almost Seen)

I feel like I could almost feel it
I feel like I could almost reach it
Oh, it is all there to grasp and understand
And yet it is out of my reach!

Sometimes I understand
I can see beyond everything
I can surmise how the universe works
I can change destiny

Must be because I am totally disconnected
Must be because I am mad
I am certainly crazy
Visions or dreams?

Have I told you my brain is not working properly?
I am schizophrenic
I am suffering from epileptic seizures
Hallucinations of all sorts

That is how I finally connect the dots
That is how finally everything makes sense
That is why I understand the universe
That is why I understand that reality does not make any sense

I feel like I could almost feel it
I feel like I could almost reach it
Oh, it is all there to grasp and understand
And yet it is out of my reach!

The well of wishful thinking

I see a well on the horizon

Quickly I go there and throw some money in it

I am so empty

I make a wish

Will all my dreams come true?

All the changes in my life that I wish for?

Will I suddenly be rich and famous?

No need to do anything anymore till the day I die?

Oh you, well of my destiny

Make all my desires come true

The world coming to a stop

To see what it is they live for

I am so simple minded

So stupid that spiders creeping on the wall don't realize

How worthless I have become

Still I have this complex of superiority

Does not make much sense

Oh, well of my destiny

Help me understand what my purpose in life is

I have lost any kind of motivation

As incomprehensible as these old expressions are

Perhaps you do not mean anything after all

Wishing well of my destiny

I am empty

As empty as you

Summary

I am Saint Karen from New York

(Co-written with Saint Karen)

I am Saint Karen from New York

The isolation is intense
That's why it is so refreshing to think
Why is everyone so afraid of confrontational honesty?
I even encounter it in the angst subcultures
It seems like fake angst is accepted because it is a packaging marketing gimmick
But real raw existential panic is hard for people to digest
I certainly see it in the local music scene
Sometimes it's easy for me to feel insecure about myself
But then I just have to plow forward and realize that I must keep agitating the sleepy masses
I like to think of myself as Joan of Arc
Who knows maybe she was in touch with her nothingness
I noticed I mention God a lot
God has always been an influence
Did he eventually ever fall in love?
Did he have a 9 to 5 job anywhere in this world?
Then he would understand what I am going through Well I thought a lot about spirituality
Got me nowhere, as expected
I guess I will never see the light
Condemned to walk this earth till the end of time
Causing trouble in the mist of New York
Forever and ever
My vision
That is my destiny

Summary

Stuck in a Time Loop

Oh God
I am back where I was Where I have always been
What is it I have to learn here that I have not learnt before?
Are you not worried that I will get bored out of my mind?
That suddenly suicide will become very attractive to me?
Seeing the end of this life means everything to me

Nothing new on the horizon
Nothing new
I have tasted something else you know
I am getting somewhere, or so I thought
But I am not
I am still here
Stuck in this time loop forever
I can't bear it anymore
I do not want that
I want my freedom
I want to live!
To explode on the universe
Have an impact beyond comprehension
I want to dictate!
I want to change the world!
I don't want to be stuck here
I don't want to get back to square one
Every damn minute of my existence
Where's the way out?
What can I do to change my life?
I don't care if you don't think like I do
I don't care if you don't agree with what I am
I won't be stuck in this time loop any longer
I will change everything for the better
No more authority
No more hierarchy
No more daily routine till death
No more anything you have ever known
I do not accept this way of life
I will break this loop
I will be free

Summary

God forbid

If I were to dictate around here

Things would work

If I were to control your destiny
God forbid
You would meet the biggest wall of all

If I were to decide to act
God forbid
The end of the world would be near

If I were to shoot you
God forbid
You would be dead

If I could control the elements
God forbid
I would be halfway across the galaxy by now

If I could devise the plans
God forbid
We would be a higher form of life right now

If I could invent life
God forbid
Life would mean something

If I could live
God forbid
I would live to the maximum

If I could cry
God forbid
I would cry

If I could just be aware for one long second
God forbid

I would see and understand everything there is to understand in this meaningless existence

But there is no chance of that since
God forbid!

Summary

There is no Point

There is no point in anything
I am out of this world
I don't exist here
What do you expect?
Richness and wonders?
La huitième merveille du monde?
La fin du monde?
I have been expecting it
Takes too long to happen
Nothing contents me
Nothing makes me happy
Distractions, well...
They don't last
Happy world
Everything is nice and expected
I need more
I need much more
More than you could ever provide
I need to get out of here
Out of this universe
To understand everything
But I already do
I am out of here
I live somewhere else
I understand everything
There is nothing to understand
I am a program

That cannot see beyond the programming
And when I catch a glimpse
I see that there is no point in going any further
Being out of ones mind
Out of this world
And see what is out there
And it is the same
The same shit
At another level
Big deal
Is there a point to all this?
Perhaps if I die tonight I might find out

Summary

That's it, I had enough

I had enough
Of these dreams
Of this unexpected breakthrough
Of these infinite possibilities
How I got myself in such a situation
That I have five days left to live
Before it is all over once again
Until I find the next idea
The next solution that will get me going for another five days
I can no longer live like that
I had enough
I refuse to continue
To hope for a better life
To hope for all my dreams to come true
I have made my decision
Gone!
Gone this life I dreamt of Never have I been so close
I don't care
That's it

I had enough
One more drink is all that I need to finally connect the dots
I won't dream anymore that someone will come and save me
This only happens in films and maybe not
I'm as good as dead
I cannot pay anymore for all my faults
I cannot live anymore for all my dreams
It is all beyond me now
I am as good as dead

Summary

Never been so low

I have finally reached rock bottom
I never thought I would reach it
I always hoped for something, anything
Now I know it was all useless
I am not expecting anything from God
I am not expecting anything from anyone
Because even a miracle would not save me now
Something has changed in me
I don't want any savior anymore
I don't want to be saved
I am beyond hope
I have known it for a while
I did not want to admit it
I have tried so hard!
To get out of my misery
And now I don't want to Fight anymore
Survive anymore
Hope anymore
This is my will Delete me
Delete my life
Delete everything!

I do not want to have existed
I was never meant to be!
I am a mistake
Why was I ever born?
I did not want to!
I don't want this life
I never wanted it!
Let me go!
Let me die!
Please, I'll do anything!
Anything to have never existed!
I was not meant to be
I was not meant to exist
I need to correct this mistake
I need to be deleted
I need to die

Summary

Towards the Green Fields

Every night I dream of green fields
Wherever they are
That is what I need to fall asleep
I always get back to that Green fields
Peace of mind, peace
From you, your existence, your babblings
I always need a break
Dream is my escape
There I don't really exist
There are no consequences
No memories
I don't know where I come from
I cannot remember anything superfluous
Nothing that can be linked to a useless name
To a life of some sort

I am out of here!
Nothing will ever save me!
I've always known that Sad I never did anything concrete about it Except walk around endlessly
In what I thought was my little universe
It is way too small!
Look at the stars!
It is infinite!
What am I doing here then?
God knows...
I was not meant to be human
I was meant to be the Universe
I am supposed to create the world
In seven seconds
Every day
As many worlds as is necessary
To get lost everywhere every second of the day
One day I am here, the next I am there
I am all over the place!
I am everywhere!
As many places as I can think of
As many universes that I can create An infinite amount of me in as many universes as there are
I do not know of any reality
I've never known of anyone's existence
This is the beginning of a new destiny!
Splashed over the stars and galaxies
This is where I belong!
There are green fields everywhere
Even in the darkest spots in the universe
Where no one ever went and will ever go
Let's face it, you do not need to exist
I see you every day walking everywhere for no reason
There are billions of you and you are not bothered by that How useless you are in this mass of the same thing
Countless human beings with no brain
Not one of them wondering why they are here or alive

Should not deserve to be here or alive
There is place for only one soul in my green fields, mine
And mine alone
I don't see billions of faces
That all look the same to me
With the same story to tell
Ahhh! Emotions, feelings, love, conflicts, a desire to assert oneself
You're all the same
You are but one person!
But not with me
I am the Marginal
I am out of your identical and meaningless identity
I am the one apart from the masses
I do not understand you
I do not want to be part of you
I do not walk like one in between you when I walk brainless around you
I look at you all and I wonder
I am not part of this
I am not like them
I'm not sure why
I just know
I don't belong here
Just because I understand that all this is meaningless
That I am only one in billions
I know I am not the same somehow
I know I am different
And I know you despise me for being different
I know you do not want me in your society
You know I don't belong there
You hate it when someone is not like you
You hate it when someone stops to think some more about the world
You hate it when someone is different, you don't want them there
They could question you, judge you
They could question why you exist
They could understand how small you are
You know
And I know too
You think there are billions of different personalities

You secretly know there is only one and the same personality
And you share that same identity with everyone on this planet

I am different, I am unique

And thank God for that!

Otherwise there would certainly be no point in living
With a useless job title to justify some sort of meaning to one's existence

I have my corner of the universe

I possess one little house somewhere

Let's locate it by satellite

Here it is

That dot lost in between countless dots

That's you!

Proud achievement!

Useless achievement

I live in my green fields

And they are nowhere to be found, for you that is

Summary

I am going to heaven

(Descent Into Hell)

How many times have I found myself here?

Hundreds of times

Did I see light on the horizon?

Never

But I'm never alone here

I see familiar faces

I meet famous people

Will we all be here?

My descent into hell is infernal

It burns me completely

It eats me away inside until there's nothing left

That's my destiny

A zombie in the caverns of this world
Seeing dimly at the summits of this life
We've all been going round in circles since the beginning of time
How could we have been happy?

With this guilt that eats us
This regret that burns us up
This remorse that kills us
It's a descent into hell

Well, I'm not going to moulder away here
I'm not going to die here
I'm going to get my things together and go up to the surface again
For having suffered so much here on earth, I too am going to heaven

Summary

Death Valley

An endless desert
An endless road
The feeling that you'll never see civilisation again
Running out of water or petrol, that's all it needs
On this road which is badly in need of repair
And without a single tourist

This was the moment you chose to make your latest outburst
I panicked, went into the ditch
We hit each other with our fists
I went off into the mountains, or whatever you call those canyons, with my face all bloody
I didn't want you to find me
I didn't want anyone to find me ever again
I walked for a long time and I never felt I was in any danger
Rage made me forget I had no way of getting back to Los Angeles or London
You had all my meagre possessions
It wasn't the first time I'd left everything behind

Your bad temper had become my bad temper
Your problems had become my problems
Your moaning had become my moaning
Your hell had become my hell

And suddenly, lost there alone in the desert
I looked at the sky, the sun and the white moon you see in daytime
And I felt good
I felt happy
Your bad temper, your problems, your moaning, your hell
Were no longer mine

You had already gone on towards Nevada
I was about to die there alone in Death Valley
And I felt wonderful
I had no more problems
No more moaning on the horizon, just some strange trees
In Death Valley, condemned to die
I was in paradise!

Summary

Inner Peace

Purity of mind
Innate clarity
The brain breathes
Oops! It's fallen
Get up! It's fallen
Aaargh!

What a lovely day
Such a nice breeze
Let's walk in the park
Ah, the trees are in blossom!
I need that now

I'd like to doze off here
Sleep for hundreds and hundreds of years
Wake up again when the world has disappeared

I'm not thinking about anything any more
I'm creating a void
Filling myself with this view
It's starting to rain
I'm on earth
I see the blue sky
And the birds

What lovely day?
I didn't even dare get out of bed this morning
I took a good look at the prospect of living
And went back to sleep

Summary

The New Age

We're getting to the end of an era
To a world where all the laws will be different
Where frontiers won't exist any more
The freedom necessary for the survival of the species
Wars don't matter, nor religions, nor existing political systems
A huge revolution is coming
Nothing can stop it because it will happen automatically
Almost naturally
And everyone will welcome the results
Rejoicing in the consequences
Discovering a new universe
We'll go where it seems good to us to go
Time will no longer limit us
At the dawn of civilisation
A new age will begin

To Hell with Conformism

I never wanted to be different
I always wanted to be part of the group
It was never amusing to be pointed out
To have to fight
And all the rest of it
I've always been seen as a danger
A danger to the conformism necessary to society
So am I a danger?
Am I such a threat that I must be eliminated?
I've never understood why we don't have the right to go against the rules
Don't have the right to say that what we learned wasn't true
Don't have the right to think differently from the rest
But I'm not going to apologise
I am different
I think differently from the rest
They call me weird
They class me as dangerous
All right then, I'll be weird
I'll be dangerous
I'm going right to the bottom of your neurosis
I'm going to challenge everything
I'm going to challenge you
I'll play out my true role as a marginal
I'll rally all the marginals on the planet
And become too strong for anyone to fight me again
I am different
And I'll act accordingly
To hell with conformism

Summary

I want to cry

I want to cry
That's what you've achieved
That's the feeling I get when I look at your achievements
It's not enough, it'll never be enough for me
So what are you doing about it?
Don't you want the world to be better?
A world where we can all be happy?
What's stopping you?
What are your thoughts?
It's not a matter of law
It's not a matter of politics
It's a love story
Love your neighbour, live and let live
Can't you find it in your heart to want to save the species?
Open everything up, even your own guts?
What are you afraid of?
That a monster under your bed will come and bite your toes?
Forget your devilish religion
Forget your devilish laws
Forget overprotecting the brains of your wonderful children
Just for a moment forget about defending your little bit of territory
Forget your flag!
We're more than that
We're in the process of disappearing
We're going to disappear from the face of the earth
We must leave
Leave this world
Far, far, far away
Begin again elsewhere
Begin everything all over again elsewhere
Only, will we have the chance?

Summary

Sold to Other People's Ideas

That's me every day
In the street, at work, in my flat
Selling myself for no reason
But a crust of bread

Great plans for the future of humanity!
Revolutionary ideas to bring a whole country to its knees!
Ideas and ideas raining down from the sky!
Everything in my way crushed and wiped out

That's me spat out
On the surface of this table
A reflection in the mirror
Oh, I'm handsome inside

Violence!
Killings!
The dead piling up!
Being sold for the ideas of others!

I'm selling myself for you
You're selling yourselves to me
The results are horrifying
Thirty million dead sent to Coventry

I'm rich now
Prostitution pays well
You're alienated now
It's time to make everything add up

That's me every day
In the street, at work, in my flat
Selling myself for no reason
But a crust of bread

Summary

A Swamp Full of Tadpoles

I'm the prisoner of something too big for me
I try to rise to the surface but I only get lost
To die drowned by the waves closing over me
I suppose I was looking for it
I wanted to die among the masses
Pass by unnoticed in a world too big for me
To be insignificant in this swamp full of tadpoles
Was I aiming for something, really?
Did I really want to get out of this swamp and become God Almighty?
Have a life being heard and being listened to?
Having my turn at dictating what should be and will be?
Useless to deny it, I wanted to make something enormous
A monstrous centipede capable of yelling in every place at once
A monster with a thousand heads and a thousand voices
The voice of truth, a subjective truth which I could manipulate at a whim
How could I have lost courage
How could I have lapsed into silence among the masses
How could I accept all that?
Impossible
I mingle with the whole so that I can be heard as a whole
To be stronger and more credible
How could I have lost the true north?
Easy, I never lost it
I could be stronger than I've been
I could be the tadpole that rises out of the swamp
Who'll become a powerful frog who can reach the lake
And then I'll be happy
I'll be liberated
I'm going to be able to breathe at last
And if I'm mistaken?
If I have to accept my status of tadpole in this swamp?
Let's be realistic, I've failed at everything
Everyone managed to get out of the swamp
But I'm here for all eternity
And I can't accept it
I still have dreams of glory

How to get out and become larger than everyone else
But I could be mistaken
I could die here without ever having been heard
Without having made a difference
Please help me to accept this failure
But I could be born again from my ashes
I'm not dead yet
We must keep hoping for a better world
We must stay motivated
We must be hopeful
We must get out of the swamp and make ourselves heard
I have to succeed
There's no choice
It's bigger than I am
We must challenge everything, we must challenge the universe
We must question everything, question our conditions, our position in the universe
It's stronger than I am
It must change!

Summary

Go ahead with your dreaming

For what it is worth
To hope for so much
Can only be deceived the day it becomes reality

You are guilty for making the world what it is
To be powerless in changing it
To not even try

How I wish I never had any dream
Never succeeded in making them come true
What is there left for me now?

No more dream worth pursuing

No hope that one day everything will fall into place
That I'll be free to do as I wish

You are guilty for making the world what it is
To be powerless in changing it
To not even try

If I were to go back in time and decide to pursue my dreams
I would not do anything
Better continue to hope in a better world than be disappointed

You are guilty for making the world what it is
To be powerless in changing it
To not even try

Go ahead with your dreaming, for what it is worth
Hope in a better world is all there is left
Cos' there'll never be a better world

You are guilty for making the world what it is
To be powerless in changing it
To not even try

Summary

Love is the biggest obstacle to conquered
Love is everything between you and success
Love is not worth it

Love is no reason to stop you living
Love is no reason to stop you from having friends
Love is no reason to stop you from smoking and drinking Love is no reason to stop you from living the way you should

Love is a prison

Love is the biggest obstacle to conquered
Love is everything between you and success
Love is not worth it

How much more whinging must one suffer?
Complaints going on and on and on?
Bitching and blaming and accusations...
It's a living hell!

Love is a prison
Love is the biggest obstacle to conquered
Love is everything between you and success
Love is not worth it

Love, is not really love
It stops life
No way
Just get rid of it

Oh, how I wish I could!

Summary

I'm Useless

I wanted to be at the top of the world
I wanted to be a billionaire
I had dreams of controlling the planet
I thought I would wipe out everyone on my way to success

I am at the bottom of the world
I have more debts than England
I am not even controlling my five cats
People wipe me out on their way to success

I was going to be the best Prime Minister there ever was
I wanted to be a business man with a conscience

I was going to help people get out of their misery
I was different and I was going to make a difference

Politics make me sick
Capitalism is killing me
I am the most miserable sod there is
I'm different all right, but nowhere near making any difference

I wanted to be a rock star
I saw myself as the best author ever
I would have made movies worthy of the Oscars
I was on my way to revolutionise everything

I can't even play a note
I can't write anything worthy of any attention
I held an Oscar once, and that's about it for that My revolution has yet to come

I'm hopeless at everything
I'm worthless at even living a normal life
I have failed in all my jobs
I'm useless

Summary

No Way Out

Why, oh why!
Why am I so miserable?
Why am I so depressed all the time?
Why can't I have fun like everyone else?
Why is happiness just an impossible goal?
What an injustice that I was born like that Worrying about just everything
Incapable of appreciating one single thing
Sinking lower every day
No way out

Why, oh why?
Why can't I see beauty?
Why can't I appreciate the simple things of life?
Why is it that I was expecting so much?
Why is it that it is never good enough?
Such high expectations
Standards so high that they could never be reached
It has all gone wrong
A living hell I've made of my existence
No way out

Why, oh why?
Why was I born like this?
Filled with an emptiness larger than an ocean
Dreaming of the infinities while watching the night sky
Hoping I was anywhere else in the universe but here
It's not fair!
To be born different
Unable to live a normal life
Unable to accept reality for what it is No way out

Why, oh why?

Summary

When I was a little boy

I remember when I was a little boy
I was filled with wonder
I looked at the night sky
I asked questions
I could not understand this universe

When I grew up
I stopped wondering

I looked at the night sky
I am asking no more questions
I still can't understand this universe

When I was a little boy
I watched silently the world around me
I watched TV
I asked questions
I could not understand this world

When I grew up
I stopped watching the world around me
I watched even more TV
I can't even think of a question to ask
I still can't understand the world around me

When I was a little boy
I did not know what to do with my time
I was as empty as the universe
I was waiting for something to happen
Nothing ever happened

When I grew up
I did not have the time to do anything
I was filled with all this surrounding me
I am waiting for some peace of mind
Too many things happen at once

When I was a little boy
I was innocent
I was ignorant
I was nothing
I was indifferent

When I grew up
I was no longer innocent
No longer ignorant
No longer nothing

But gosh I wish I was indifferent

Summary

Remaining true to oneself

No more lies, ever
Can be plastic for a while
If it serves my purpose
But ultimately, there is only one truth
There is only one destiny
I am following it
It does not involve anyone else
And these people
Does not matter
They are all so insignificant
This is not what I want
This is not my life
Shining, being successful, making millions
These things are not important to me
This is not me
I have created a whole new universe
I am living in there
Whenever I can, that is
However, this is all there is Nothing else
Life, success
I'm flirting with them, no doubt
When I can get inspired from it
I should not forget that they mean nothing
They should not take me over
I should not stress over them
I am my only master
Only my freedom counts in the end
Only my happiness means something
And I won't find that anywhere
It is a state of mind

To not depend on anything, or any place, or anyone
To get there
And I will get there
If I can recognise this, right here and right now
If I can stop and think
I may lose my way here and there
Forget who I am and what I can do
As long as I can remember my nature
As long as I can disconnect from all of this
And remember what it is that I am and doing
Then there is hope

I won't play their game
I won't be part of it
Nothing and no one is important enough
I don't belong to them
I don't belong here
There is another world out there
The dream world
The virtual world
My own creation
At the end of the day
This is all there is
And nothing else

If nothing else
I will remain true to myself

Summary

Get inspired, if you can

Not too many things
Not too many people
Not too many can inspire
Energise you
Break the mould

Break out of this reality
Break out!

Why waste time
Why waste a life
Why waste everything
For what is not worth it?

Who cares?
Who gives a damn?
No one
Unless they forgot what was important
And God, there are so many of them
With no life anymore
You wish you could take them in your hands
Shake them
Until they wake up
But they won't, they could not
They are too far gone

Not important
You is important
I am important
I need to free myself
That is all that matters

I need to get inspired!
I need to revolutionise everything!
Even if it was all and only for myself
In my own little puny mind

I need to feel strong
I need to feel I am over everything else
I need to feel free!
To do whatever I want, whenever I want

That I could still be successful
That I could still be appreciated

That I could still be desired
That I could still be right there in the middle of it all

Are you blind?
Are you completely out of your mind?
Are you that desperate?
Or am I still worth something despite my convictions that I am not?

I am ugly
I am old
I am worthless
I don't give a toss about anything
I am the last person you would like to hire
And yet, I'm still there playing your mind games
And suffering from it

There is nothing else I need to do here
There is nothing else I need to say here
There is nothing else I can do that will make any difference whatsoever
There is nothing I can say that is worthwhile

I can't get inspired anymore
You have killed any sort of original idea I could have Nothing is worth it anymore
Not that it ever was
I won't reinvent the wheel, I know that now
I have accepted it

Get inspired while you can
While you feel you can still be inspired
I certainly can't
I don't remember a time when I was
You have made a miserable human being out of me

Summary

I'm not proud

I'm not proud
Of being a human being now
I don't think I ever was anyway
But now I have a damn good reason
While all my fellow citizens are losing their mind

I'm not proud!
I'm not proud of any of you
You have given up
You have given everything you had
You are asking for less
Standards have gone out the window
You deserve what is coming
And you let it happen

I'm not proud
Of the human race
Of what we have achieved
Of where we are going
Nowhere
Who could be proud?
No one

I'm not proud
I'm not proud of you
You cannot see beyond the next hill
You cannot see what is coming
You are doom
And yet you don't care

I'm not proud
Of being who I am
Because I cannot make a difference
I cannot tell you
I cannot change anything
I witness it
And that's it

That is why I can only say
We deserve what we have

I'm not proud of what we have become
And neither should you

Summary

In Between Days

Unfortunately
I have the time to see it happen
I have the time to think about what is to come
I don't like it
I wish it was there right now
Before I had the time to doubt myself
To doubt the universe
And its mechanisms
Oh, how I am wasting time!
Oh, will it still be there for me?
Will I be able to accomplish anything once I'm there?
Do I need proof that I am following my destiny?
Can I leave all doubts out the door?
Oh, I wish I could
Oh, I'm not so sure it will all happen
Am I still in control?
Am I building up this huge work of art?
Or am I just as lost as I always thought I was?
Am I just a useless piece of crap?
Living within other lost ones
With no ambition whatsoever
Who can only complain
And complain
And complain
Until there is nothing left
That resembles life?
I am so tired to hear this planet whinge

That I'm considering wild solutions
To stop this whinging
I'm gonna turn myself into a weapon of mass destruction
I've been pretty successful so far
As I am myself a first class whinger
However I can't stand it anymore
On the verge of such a radical change
There is no more time to whinge
Only time to think
Only time to plan
Only time to dream
I have no more time
For the problems of the humanity
I am in between days
Before the misery ends
Before the dream starts
And I won't let anything stop me
Even for a second
Get lost!
Yes! All of you
Get out of my way!
I am on the path to my destiny
The past no longer exists
You no longer exist
Only I count for something now
Only I exist
I have to figure out
Everything
I have to figure out
What it is that I'm supposed to do now
Where it is that I am really going
What I am really going to achieve
I have work to do
And I will do it
Even if it kills me
Even if it kills you

Oh, how I wish I was no longer

Oh, I wish I was no longer
In between days

Summary

I don't want to fall in love again!

I am guilty!
I have betrayed everything that I loved!
I secretly wanted it so badly
And now that it has happened
I can't stand it!
It is tearing me apart!
I don't want to fall in love again!

God please help me
Make sense of it all
What is it that I fell in love with?
Is it just an idea, a concept?
Is it more profound than that?
This history of places, of people, of deaths?
Somewhere in Maryland, in New Mexico, in the Nevada Desert?
Having Death Valley around the corner?
Losing myself in the dunes, the sun, the infinite...
Is this what I fell in love with? Tell me
Is there a cure?
Was I allowed to see too much?
Was it too soon?
Was I ready to fall in love again?
I don't think so
Now it has happened
I have to deal with it
I have to
Somehow

I was already in love with the greatest cutest little thing
It was called England

It was my playing field
And believe me I played hard there
I am crying again, and again, and again
Everything there is to cry
The most beautiful thing ever
So sweet and so much in love with me
How could I ever trade you for anything else?
I could never
I would prefer to die

The floodgate is opened
The tornadoes are raging
The earthquakes are comin'

I am at the dawn of a new life
I can see it emerging in front of my eyes
It is huge
It is powerful
It is far reaching
It is all I have ever hoped for
The price to pay might just be too much

It is too late now
I'm already in love
Again

Summary

Permanent Summer with Palm Trees and Canyons

What is there not to love in the San Fernando Valley?
It is always sunny
From whatever direction you look at Sure enough you will see Palm Trees
Mountains
Clean sidewalks

Little white houses
Purity to infinity
Innocence of a world
That has nothing to do with Hollywood
My universe is of a bright white
Immaculate
Puts all your thoughts in order
Of a tranquility not found in London
Suburbs of Los Angeles
With canyons in every directions
Topanga Canyon is the closest
Huge rock face with weird flowers and cacti
After it is Malibu Beach
Miles of sand with blue water
The Californian coast a few miles away
The heat of the sun keeps my balcony floor warm at night
And when it rains, it is a nice little rain
My simple little life
Without any worry whatsoever
It could easily be
If I would let it be

I can tell the time by where the sun or the moon is in the sky
Right over my head, it is noon or midnight
The shadow of the trees can also tell me
Where I am
What I am thinking
Inspiration for a lifetime
The kind of surge I get only years later
Once I have lost it all

I could never come back
It would never be the same anyway
These magical moments only exist at that very second
After that it is gone forever
And you have to go for the adventure
To find new inspirations
If ever you can find such moments again

I am about to lose it all
I can feel it
Got to cherish those moments while they last
They won't last much longer
It could never be the same
It's great when you don't have to wait
Until you have lost it
To understand
That peaceful existence
Of a perfect moment in time

Summary

Whatever it is you couldn't stand about me

Is it the packaging?
I know, pretty cheap, got no money
But you are rich I hear?
The sell by date?
I've long passed my sell by date
But never mind
You are rotten to the core
My frontal bar code?
Well, I'm sure it would not work with your mind reader
Is it my third eye?
My big mouth?
My bad teeth?
Do I have bad breath?
Oh, must be my brain
I was born deformed, I know
Compared to your perfection, that is
Is it my personality?
When I did not laugh at your boring jokes?
They put me to sleep, dear
Sorry
Is it because I'm always drunk?

Well, feel yourself lucky
To do what you ask of me
I would need to be drugged to full capacity at all time
What is it?
Tell me! Tell me!
My lack of enthusiasm when you wanted to enslave me?
Cos' I have an excuse for that one
I was sick that day
You make me sick, dear
Just for being you

Maybe this is what you could not stand about me
That I could not stand you in the first place

Summary

My Island

I am disconnected
I don't live here anymore
I live somewhere else
A perfect world
An island
A perfect one
How can I describe it?
A palace
Heights
Flying machines
A Sun
A Moon
Symbols
Problems
Which are not mine
Only beauty for me to see
To enjoy
To live through Seeing trees
Landscapes

Other islands
The rain through the forest
An imagined history
Pure creation
Beyond any dreams
I feel it so deeply
I live there all the time
I cannot leave this place
I love this place
Such perfection
That I could never reach
In the real world
My virtual world
It has become so important
So central to my life
To my survival
How can it be?
It is virtual
It is just a dream
And yet it is so powerful
I don't live here anymore
I guess I never did
I was always more there
Than I have ever been here
I am so confused
Did I ever exist?
Has this reality ever existed?
I'm not sure
I think I imagined it all
The real world is that island
Which I always come back to
I don't know where I would be right now
If I never went there
I would not be where I am now
I'm sure of it
I'm so lost
I'm not sure if I really exist
I feel I can almost understand

That this is not real
My life
It cannot be
I am now on my island
In real life
It makes no sense to me
I am even rejecting it
It seems
It is only good in my dreams
Only acceptable as long as it is unreachable
It makes no sense
Tonight I'm not here
I'm out there
I'm on my island
I feel so good
I feel warm
I feel beauty passing through myself
I am that universe
It is all me
I am one with my world
With the world
And for once
It makes sense to me
I don't exist here
I only exist there
That's where I have always been
More there than here
It has become my reality
The only place I can really exist
Where I can feel good about being alive
At least I have that
Not sure if anyone else has that chance
I don't care
I realized tonight
That I have always been living
In another world
And I am pleased that I finally accepted it
Reality is something of the past

Something that never really existed
For me
There is only one place to evolve in
To contemplate
To enjoy life
My island

Summary

Los Angeles does not really exist

For the first time in my life
I am convinced that my life is not real
I can feel it
It is a joke
And I'm wondering
Why it made me suffer so much
When really it was never there in the first place
You would think that after suffering so much
I decided to create myself a dream world
Freud would destroy my argument in a second
But I think he missed the point
I have reached another understanding
One that he could never reach
I understand that the world is not real
It is an invention
A creation of some sort
A testing ground perhaps
But no more than that
It is no more real than my dreams
My dreams are more real now
I stand somewhere over all of this
Los Angeles made me understand
No matter all the problems it sent my way
I just cannot believe it
I don't buy it
It is all fake

Life is much simpler
Life is simple
And it is not what it seems
It is something else
I can see it so clearly now
Every tree, every bush
Have been placed there
For some reason
But it is a desert
It should be a desert
It should be emptiness
It is emptiness
It does not belong there
Nothing belongs anywhere
It was placed there for us
To act like if it was a real world
It is obvious to me
That it never was
And only here can I see it so clearly
It is all an illusion!
An elaborate scam!
The world does not exist!
Why do you still suffer?
There is no reason to
It was created for you to pretend
To be alive and kicking
When really
You cannot be Nothing belongs here
You do not belong here
I don't belong here
It is all someone else's creation
And I refuse to be part of it
It is not mine
I have nothing to do with that obvious fake creation
This virtual world
I want to live in the real world
The world I have not been told about

Which oversees all of this so-called reality
I am now aware
I can feel it
I will reach the real world
I will

Summary

The extinction of humanity

What you qualify as my twisted mind
Is only a reflection of what you taught me
It is only the true and only consequence
Of what you truly tried to brainwash me about
It was leading there
I don't understand why you feel this is not true
What did you expect?
Was it not what you wanted me to do?
To truly really do?
Is competition not the extermination of any threat to my being?
Is succeeding not preventing others from taking my place?
Is becoming rich and powerful
Not mean everyone else being a slave to my own desires?
If I am to control everything
Surely it means that no one else should have any freedom
If I am to lead the life I am expecting to lead
Then no one else can live in this world
What you qualify now as my twisted mind
Is your own twisted mind you did not realize you had
You were just too blind to see it
It is too late now
I will make all your dreams come true
And I will not get the blame
You will get just what you deserve
I assure you
What you taught me
It was leading there

To the extinction of humanity

Summary

Hail to the bugs, the true leaders of this world

By bugs

You probably thought I was referring to our politicians
But I was in fact talking about the true leaders of this world

Something much more powerful than any of us

Real bugs

We are at war

And we are losing it

It's time we acknowledge our defeat

And consider them as our true leaders

Bugs have taken over the world

They inhabit us

We are still unable to kill them

They spread from one host to the other

We have become their home

It kills us

And then they move on to someone else

Until none of us will remain

To even support their existence

They don't seem to mind

Not hard to understand

We have been following the same pattern

Multiplying until the Earth can no longer sustain any of us

But that was not the real worry

We will all be dead by the time the earth becomes unlivable

The bugs are winning the war

And we have not even declared that we were at war

Because we feel they are not really threatening

Until they actually reach either us directly

Or someone we personally love

Won't be too long now

Soon we will all be infected

They're winning the war
They mutate much faster than we could hope to mutate ourselves
And they don't even need to practice DNA re-sequencing
They move at a much higher time rate than us
They've gone through millions of generations
Of permutations
Of mutations
While we were still debating what should be legal or illegal
Hail to the bugs
The next and only humanity
Perhaps they will find a way not to kill each other
And finally get out of the solar system
Something it seems we were never going to achieve anyway
What a pity
There is no greatness to speak of here
About humanity
After all
Perhaps we were not really worth it
It took so long anyway to understand anything
We only produced two geniuses
Newton and Einstein
And it took us hundreds of years
To finally understand
That they were completely wrong
Ultimately we produced no geniuses at all
It was all an illusion
The history of humanity is a sad one indeed
Plagued with stupidity
While we were praising our intelligence and greatness
Perhaps the bugs
In their own time frame
Will go further than we could ever achieve
The bugs, our only true legacy
May they be the ones finally getting out of the solar system
To continue humanity's legacy to the stars
The only species with any real future
The only species capable of surviving any Life Extinction Event
Hail to the bugs!

The true leaders of this world!

Summary

My attempt to find happiness

What am I complaining about?
Don't I remember that kid?
Living desperately alone when he was 18?
In a black hole in the North Pole?
I had dreams to see the world
To live everywhere
It started with Ottawa
Then Paris
Then London
Then Toronto
Then New York
Then Brussels
Then Los Angeles
I've seen the world
I lived everywhere of any consequence
I've achieved those dreams
Why was it not enough?
What more could I want?
I did not find happiness
I did not even find peace
I found no answer to all my questions
I guess I was not going to find them in Los Angeles
Under a palm tree
Or under a rock in the desert
I should have jumped into hard drugs with my two hands
Perhaps I would then have found some answers
Some happiness
I only found alcohol
I think it did not help much
I might as well have remained in the North Pole
Perhaps I would have found happiness there after all

Under a rock under the snow
After digging for a few miles
Nothing exists from before I reached London
And now that I am no longer in London
It seems that my life has ended
I am lost somewhere outside the fabric of space
Need to find a way back to my life
Need to find a wormhole leading back to London
Surely there is one between Los Angeles and London?
Or else
Bring me a Big Bang
If everything explodes
I might be able to rebuild or create something bearable
With all the pieces of my reality
Lost everywhere in the world
The universe is obviously too small for me
Happiness must lie outside of it
Great
Now I have dreams of getting out of the universe
I'll find a way
To tell you if I have found happiness
Once I get there
Cos believe you me
I will get there!
And I better find happiness

Summary

Beyond that Californian Mountain

Get ready, we're leaving!
I don't know where Don't ask
We're just leaving
There are some new horizons to explore
I've been told there was something there
To make it all worthwhile

Of course I don't believe it
I don't care
I need to get out of here!
I need to believe there is something
Beyond these Californian mountains
I see them every day on my way to work
And yet I am stuck in the Valley
Every day on my way to work
I cannot reach those mountains
I'm not even sure if they're real
Who cares?
Get ready!
We're leaving
I don't know
Who cares?
I need to get out of here
I cannot be stuck like this Anywhere!
I cannot just stop living
Anywhere
I need to feel alive!
I need to get going
I need to listen
To my sense of adventure
My need of exploration
What's behind that mountain?
I don't know
I don't care
I need to go there
I need to find out
Don't you understand?
I need to get out of here!
Get ready!

Summary

Where am I?

I don't know where I am anymore
I've been everywhere
Time is no longer linear in my case
I am everywhere and nowhere at the same time
I don't know what it is that I am supposed to do
I just know that I don't want to do it

Where am I?
I don't know where I am
I just know that I don't want to be anywhere
Anywhere has never made me happy
Whatever I ever did
Never made me happy
So
How could I care where I am
What I am doing?
And especially
What I should be doing next
And where?

Where am I?
What is it that I'm supposed to do here?
Should it not be where I actually want to be?
Doing what I actually want to do?
It is not the case
So I could not care less
That is why I have the strangest ideas
The weirdest desires
Of changing everything
Nothing ever could make me happy
Nowhere in this world could I ever be happy
You could not make me happy
I don't need you
I don't need everything that you want me to do
I don't need that shite
Just get out and disappear!
So I can get lost too

And never Ever
Have
To give it
A second thought

Where am I?
Lost, that's for sure
What am I doing?
Nothing, that's for sure
Where should I be?
Nowhere
What should I be doing?
Nothing

Then
Perhaps
I might Find Happiness

Summary

I thought you were dead

I thought I succeeded
In killing all of you
In my own thoughts
My own dreams
And then
To my astonishment
You all came back from the dead

What is it now?
What do you want from me?
Don't you understand
That you're supposed to be dead?

Not existing
Being nothing?

I succeeded
In forgetting you
Accepting your death
Why do you come back now?
What are all those questions?
I don't need to answer any of them
I'm in deep shit, as usual
I know you could help me tremendously
I know you don't want to
I know you won't
I know I would not accept it anyway

So why come back from the dead?
Especially now?
When I am so down at the bottom?
Do you enjoy seeing me down there?
Does it make you feel better
How low I am
And how normal you are?

Well, I never cared for normality
I prefer to be sinking really
Yes I do!
Don't question me
I don't know why
I don't want to know
I am marginal
I am not like you
I don't want to be like you

Let me sink!
I don't care for zombies
Contacting me once in a while
To find out if I am finally getting somewhere
I am not

And I won't be
For many more decades
Are you happy now?
Are you ready to go back
To the world of the dead?

Summary

Tomorrow will be such a great day all over L.A.!

I've got to be on lots of amphetamines
To even entertain the idea
That tomorrow
In Los Angeles
Will be a great day
All this town has been able To bring me
Is a death wish
And yet
I am here tonight
Suddenly believing in miracles
That days are not passing by Just to bring the worst in humanity
Every single day has been Worse and worse
Even when you could not think
It could get any worse
Life always finds a way
To make it worse the next day
It is excruciating
Wondering what I'm doing here
That's it
I can feel life leaving me forever
I might just die here
Unless I do something
Unless I get out of here before it happens
Is it not too late?

Just when you think
That you are due for a great day
Any kind of good news
That suddenly will change your life
Forever
You discover
That this town has played a trick on you
It is exasperating
You want to die
It is always worse the next day!
Surely
At some point
I'll wake up in L.A.
And feel great?
At least once?
Oh God...
It just won't happen
What a disaster

Summary

Sweet Chinese Girl

I know you're a girl
And I'm a boy
And that by some sort
Of law of nature
We're incompatible
I feel deeply for you
We're in the same boat
A sinking boat
You're left there alone
Looking at all this Experiencing it for the first time
Totally desperate
Not knowing what to do
What's coming next

I feel so bad for you
I feel so sorry for you
I've been through it dozens of times
It is second nature to me
That hell you're just discovering
I would love to squeeze you in my arms tonight
Make you discover what it is
That you are actually missing
Everywhere I have been Everything I have seen
Connected for eternity
To something larger than you have ever experienced
Forget what it is that they are doing to you
Come with me
We'll go and explore this world
We'll forget for a while We'll be happy for a while You're so sweet
For you I'll make an exception
I will stop
I will take you under my wings
Until you can fly away
Far away from here
Understand that there is something else
Beyond the horizon
I've seen it
And yet
It is more of the same
Only together could we ever built ourselves
A fortress in which None of them will ever have access
Come with me
I'll make you discover
This world
Before they turn you into a monster
Sweet Chinese Girl

Summary

I'm Unstoppable!

Why do I always doubt myself?
I always succeed anyway in the end
I feel so powerful right now
I could take a whole army by myself
Get out of my way!

No one
Will ever stop me in the pursuit of my destiny
I will accomplish every single thing I want
I will succeed at everything I put my mind to
And all of you
Trying to stop me
Will be wiped out of my path

I'm indestructible!
Whatever I want to achieve
I achieve it
Whatever obstacles you can see
I am blind to it
Nothing will stop me
No one will stop me

There is always a solution
The important thing
Is to not stop before it even begins
I need to go for it
Aware of the impossibility of it
Somehow
I always find a way
To make it come true

Money is the least of my worry
I never had any
And yet

It never stopped me
So believe me
When I'm telling you
That I am going to build this empire
I will!

I'm following my great destiny
I'm unstoppable!

Summary

Power is nothing

Real power in this world
Is nothing
It does not give me any buzz
I don't care
For deciding the destiny of millions
Their fate
Their faith
It is insignificant
The real power is in the head
It is psychological
When you really feel powerful
Ready to create a new universe
Motivated like never
This is significant
This is real power
Creating something huge
When you're off your mind
Alone
For that I might skip ending my life
For that power I sense in me
That never ending potential
To change everything
Without any real power in the physical world
It is worth living for

Power is nothing
No good ever came of it
But being powerful in your own mind
Can change the world
On a massive scale

Summary

I cannot be trusted, I will fail every time

You would think I was
The trustable type
Yeah!
Leave it to me!
I'll take care of everything
Why not?
What are you worried about?
I've got a brain
So at least I thought
I'll deal with it
Get out! Get out...
I can be trusted
I'll take care of everything

Oh dear
I guess I was wrong
I cannot be trusted
You should never have left
You should never have Trusted everything to me
I've destroyed everything
Just as I thought
Just as expected
It was so easy to reach that point
You would never believe
I cannot be trusted
I destroyed it all

Faster than thinking
About the fact that I had to be doubly careful about it
I failed
Miserably
Now you're free to think
Whatever you want about me
I'll fail you every time
I'm just
Not perfect
I could never be
I never wanted to be
I destroyed everything
And it was to be expected
I knew it
You should have seen it as well
I am not like the others
I am not perfect
I will never be
I've always known it
They have told you already
That I was not it
And yet
You did not believe them
You thought I had some sort of potential
How ridiculous
Well
Now you know
There was no hope for me
It took me less than a week
To destroy it all
Now
The only gracious thing to do
Is to announce
My resignation
Something I wanted to ask
For a long time now
One more argument
To justify it

To justify my utter failure
Thank you!
Thank you
For whatever
I'm not sure why
What
Who cares?
I'm gone

Summary

Completely screwed up

How can it be otherwise?
This world is trying its hardest
To screw us up completely Until
No humanity can remain
I am!
Completely screwed up
Years of therapy will be necessary
To make sense of anything
I have ever said
I'm out of my mind
I do not know what I am doing
I am like a machine
Accomplishing the same tasks
Over and over and over
Again and again and again
I do not know where I am!
I don't understand
What it is that I do!
I'm so lost...
I need saving
As I have lost everything
I do not possess anything anymore
I never possessed anything

I barely acknowledge
That I might Have existed
Somewhere, for a while
And then somewhere else
For a while
I have the weirdest accent
From all those countries I am from
I can be from anywhere
Nobody knows
Nobody needs to know
That I am from nowhere
Completely screwed up
That's what I am
Don't try to make sense of anything
It does not make sense
Or else, I'd be happy
Happy go lucky
Lucky as hell
Maybe I am
Who knows
I'm confused
I'm screwed up
Your greatest achievement
For sure
I've seen it!
I've seen it all!
I'm from everywhere!
I have witnessed everything
There is on this Earth
You will not teach me tricks
I know them all
I thought I was screwed up
I understand now
That you are
Screwed up
Completely screwed up
And I am just plain normal

Summary

There's no end to it

(I died that night...)

I died that night...
On the longest road ever
Going all the way to the North
Where there are no more cities
No more people
I'm listening to the most
Provocative music ever
Meaningful music
Going at an astonishing 150 miles an hour
On ice
While the snow is raging
God
This is happiness
This is the ultimate moment
Running along so fast
Trees passing by Snow not slowing anyone
Just pure craziness
Seeing ghosts
Making weird decisions
Putting one's life
Back into question
Right there
I made the most spectacular accident
I died for sure
Many times over
In all these parallel universes
I felt it deep
I am the only one left alive
Living to tell the tale
Of how crazy I was that night

Being alive for a change
Listening to the darkest music there is
I was already gone
I was already dead
I was asking for it
I was desperate
On this lone road going up North
Forever
Might as well have been
The only road to the North Pole
I was so alive!
I was alone
And I died
Many times over
I felt it
We all died that night
Now I am the only survivor
I should have just died
Like all the others
I feel
So
Alone!
I'm telling you
I know
I died that night...

Summary

Tonight I am alive!

Where have you been?
Don't tell me
It does not matter
You could not have gone
Anywhere of any significance
It's nothing
Compared with where I am

I'm out of this world
I've always been
My brain does not register
So many nights
Of being out of my mind
Does not matter
I tell you
It's nothing
Don't worry
I don't care
You can't understand
I'm out of here!
Tonight I am alive!
It is all in my mind
Full of deception
My own imagination
I can be so powerful you know
You do not matter
You never did
I'm out of it
I live in a different universe
Sometimes I'm dead
Sometimes I just don't realize I'm alive
But
Tonight, I am alive
I am filled with all the power there is
I am electrified!
I have been living much more
In my mind than
In this reality
I discovered that a long time ago
I knew
I have always known that I was different
I am just incompatible with life
I never found myself
Anywhere
I never liked to be with people
I have always loved

To be alone
Then, and only then
Can I be myself
And so powerful
More alive than anyone has ever been
You will never know
What it means
To be alive
For a change
It's all in the mind
When you're far gone
And have always been
Tonight, I am alive!

Summary

I Shall be Free!

Written everywhere
In every book
Here is the lone line
Most wanted
Forever and ever
I shall be free!
And yet
No one is
We have not been saved
We have not been liberated
From religion
From politics
From social hierarchy
We are not free!
And shall never be!
You can die here tonight
You can eat your words
Your commands
Your powers

Because
I shall be free!
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no

Shut up!

This just won't do
You do not understand
Get out of my way!

Listen!

I shall be free!
I'll make it happen
I'll obliterate you
From space if necessary

I'll find a way
To make you disappear forever

I shall be free!
You'll never understand
Cos' you're blind
You do not know the meaning

You are lost

Brainwashed

I am not

I shall be free!

Who are you?

To decide for me?

To tell me what to do?

To stop me in my tracks

To condemn me

To a life of misery?

If no one is capable

Of telling you

How insignificant you are

I'll prove it to you

I'll erase you from history

I shall be free!

This is beyond anything anyone has ever known

This is greater than the universe

It is the ultimate pursuit of existence

Beyond anything there ever was

Beyond
There is no other way
No one can stop it
Mark my word
Forever and ever
I shall be free!

Summary

There is still hope for me

That's my life!
This is my purpose
This is what defines me
I'm still capable
Of disconnecting myself
Completely
From this world
There is still hope for me
As long as I can Move away
Place myself outside of it
Comprehend
The pettiness of this world
And understand
That I am not part of it
That I live way beyond it
There is still hope for me
I can replace myself
In the right context
Where I am
On my course towards
My real destiny
And see everything else
As meaningless
Not really existing
Cannot be affected by anything

Really
I'm just an observer
Reporting
This is my duty
And yet I'm just a spy
I do not suffer
I learn and I report
That's my real job
And then I am removed from it all
I move on
I go and learn somewhere else
And report something else
I do not suffer
I don't have the time for that
I am disconnected
I am never really there
Never there for long anyway
Just the time to take the pulse
Of the nation
And I'm gone
That's just perfect for me
Never less than six months
Never more than a year
Just enough to never suffer
Just enough to feel
Disconnected from it all
Just enough for it all
To feel like it is a game
That I play for a while Before disappearing forever
Towards new horizons
What a life!
Of suffering
But never for too long
I'm beyond that
As long as I understand this
As long as I can integrate that
There is still hope for me

Summary

I have lived! And now I can die...

Have you lived?
Have you got out of where you were born?
Have seen the world as I saw it?
Have you lived everywhere
Your heart was telling you to go?
Have you broke free
From just about everything
Ready to stop you to achieve your dreams?
No
Then you do not deserve to die
You have not seen the world
You know nothing about what's out there
Get up!
Get out!
Explore the world
Listen to your sense of adventure
Forget everyone standing up in your way
Push them away!
You will see that world for yourself
You will live there for years
It will mean everything to you
You will achieve your dreams!
No one can stand in your way
The world won't listen
Why should you?
Change country
Find out for yourself
That it is the just the same
But until you find out for yourself
You just don't know
You cannot just die yet
You have not seen anything

You have not lived
How sad would it be
To die
Without having at least lost your illusions?
Your dreams!
Find out first that there's no hope
To ever make you happy in this world
Before abandoning it
Who knows
You might get lucky
You might actually find what you're looking for
I thought I did
In Paris, in London, in New York, in Los Angeles
Now I know I was wrong
I have lived!
Now I can die...

Summary

Being Nothing

I'm an explosion of places
A multitude of times
There are several versions of me
I follow this path or that while believing I'm following my destiny
But it makes me suffer so much
To know I'm following a beaten track and living too intensely
I try to accept, to experience, everything
Although I could easily spare myself

I'm an explosion of places
A multitude of times
I chase all sorts of possibilities
I follow this path or that, I'm my own destiny
It makes me suffer so much
But I'm learning to get acquainted with life
Acquainted with the lives of others

They're just like mine

I'm an explosion of places

A multitude of times

But I still feel I'm nothing

Grubby and ugly, empty and worthless

How can such a heap of meat follow a destiny?

Summary

My Mea Culpa

Must we pay for our mistakes?

Can we be forgiven a life of misery?

Where do I go for a refund?

I want to take back this life which I don't remember asking for

I've lost it in trying as best I could to make it liveable

Nothing works, I promise you

Always and everywhere unlucky

I pay all the time for the least of my actions

Will you forgive me the hell I've made of my life?

Will you understand it's better than the hell you've prepared for me?

I was born sick, seriously so

I'm in no way responsible for my destiny

Couldn't sit happily in my own skin

Nothing could have kept me alive

if I'd had to work a nine to five day

Hear my will, while there's still time

I leave you the guilt of my existence

Summary

Throw Me Away After Use

I'm non-returnable, even if it's against the law
Can't be recycled, the machine wouldn't know what to do with me
All I'm fit for is burial in some remote spot
Where I'll be forgotten far from any organized society
I only knew how to lose myself every which way in its dregs
I thought I could reach the heights by going in by the back door
But I despised those heights too much
I'm worthless, I'm nothing
I reject as a matter of course whatever could make me valuable
Whatever could make something of me
My mind can't accept any sort of label
I do talk, but no one ever listens to me
No one has ever listened to me
Because no one ever listens to anyone
All they've done is to watch me, interpret me from afar
My life is only just beginning but already I've drawn up a balance sheet
Have I lived too much in so short a time?
And what use is living too much, I've had nothing out of it Sometimes someone takes me, appreciates me for a fraction of a second
Then they've had enough, spit me out again
Life isn't worth the effort of living

Summary

Step Into My Hell

Come on, come in and share my hell
I'm at home here in the warm
It's comforting when it's cold outside and in Sorry there's nothing left to eat, that's one of the joys of my hell
It keeps me alert, seeing human misery quite clearly
There's plenty to drink, though, a bottle of French wine tonight:
La Vieille Ferme, Côtes du Ventoux
My survival depends on drink more than on food

I'm going out tonight, come with me
We'll listen to a rhythm wild enough to wake up your heart
Make it beat at the right speed to lift you outside the walls of your life
I'm going to meet someone who'll show me a new universe
You too can share it
Hear life being discussed, people existing Revealing all their secrets to complete strangers
Because I'm a complete stranger, more to my family than to all those unknowns that I meet
Step into my hell
Once you come to understand it, perhaps it won't be hell any more
But you won't come to understand it
Just as I won't come to understand you
Must we for that reason try to wipe out one another?
There never was a war without loss of life
I've got nothing to lose, you've got nothing to gain
If there must be a fight, I'll fight
If you want war, I'll wage it
If I have to kill you, I'll kill you
I've got nothing to lose, you've got nothing to gain
Step into my hell...

Summary

Flee, Flee, Flee!

Leave and go anywhere else
London, Paris, New York, Toronto
When everything's going wrong
When people don't understand each other
When you don't look straight at me but glance to right or left
When your parents try to convince me I've got the wrong number so that I can't reach you
When my social life is truly bankrupt because my studies take precedence
When shame, guilt and even nostalgia are killing me
Let's sprinkle it all with whisky, and make our sign of the cross

Flee, flee, flee!

As soon as anyone criticises me, no matter what for

Looking on me as less than nothing (which is entirely true)

Taking me for an idiot to be exploited all the way and back

Abusing me as much as they can and may, even within the law

You can trample all over me, spit in my face and finish me off altogether

I've still got the option of flight

Flee, flee, flee!

When the brain stops responding to the body

When my IQ goes up (against nature) by a notch

When I start to act like an idiot, talking to myself or crying in the dark

My only solution, utter forgetfulness, complete renewal, rebirth

Flee, flee, flee!

Summary

I'm Going to Shoot Myself

I want to do it without causing trouble or sorrow

My family have long since forgotten me, how could they feel the impact of the shot?

I want to make sure that no one ever finds me

Spare myself a funeral, the fire and the urn

Leap into the ether and never come down again

Bury myself in the earth and never come up for air

Sink to the bottom of the sea and never resurface

Travel through infinite space without arriving anywhere

Become utter nothingness, with no remains in refrigerators or elsewhere

Burn up everything I've touched, even my own ashes

Be sublimated into energy which will lose itself among the stars

I've got to stop myself from thinking, finish myself off for good, not half-heartedly

Stop all the torment and wild fantasies

Blow all the circuits of memory capable of retaining any token of my presence on earth

I have no pity for anyone, least of all for myself

Forgive me! I wanted nothing more than to live!

But living is impossible...

Summary

I Go from One Extreme to the Other

As with everything in this world, there's no happy medium
Everything goes right or everything goes wrong
And my reactions are extreme
Either I'm having such a good time that I could die of happiness (Sometimes just watching the movement of a snail)
Or I want to die drowned in drink
(sometimes just seeing a snail crushed at the side of the road)
I'll draw down the moon for you or I'll cut off your head and bury you
I'm on a strict diet or eating to bursting point like a pig
I'll dance at the edge of the cliff but sometimes I need a darkened room, hermetically sealed
I insult people and lose all my friends or I shower them with more flowers than they can bear
I get through a task by working on it twenty-four hours a day or I do nothing at all
I'm an extremist
As with everything in this world, there's no happy medium
Everything goes right or everything goes wrong

Summary

From the Moment When . . .

From the moment when . . .
You're worth nothing any more and it's written in the stars
That you've failed at everything and have no future
That everyone's rejected you, parents and the love of your life
That you've got no more food and it's only by a miracle that you've survived this long

That you're lost at five o'clock in the morning in the middle of some strange town with nowhere to sleep
Then real life begins
The life where you have no more hang-ups, no more shame
No morality, no outmoded values
Not answerable to anyone
Then I indulge myself to death
I make my base in London
I go out, drink, smoke, and rave the night away
And when I'm lost in the Underground on my way to the centre of town, I'm ecstatic!
I revel in my total freedom
I'm so far away from all those people who say things should be this way and not that
I'm far away from the ones who live in the past and have no hope in the future, without even taking a look at the present
Ah well, as for me, I've never lived as much as I do in the present
From the moment when everything you've ever known no longer exists, life begins

Summary

Love is Sweet

We've been head over heels in love for four years
We don't understand each other any more but try to be faithful
We cook ourselves nice little dinners
Broccoli soup with cream, charlottes with maple syrup
We sleep together in a queen-size bed, hardly ever snore
We go together to the cinema, go shopping together
Everyone knows about our relationship and accepts it gladly
Life couldn't be sweeter
But . . . where did we meet?
What no one knows is that we met in the bog at a bar in town
There's nothing more romantic
A dark room filled with smoke at about two o'clock in the morning
I'd just arrived, was already drunk

I'd been smoking something dodgy, couldn't see very well
You gave me a lift home saying perhaps we'd see each other again at the end of term
I gave you the wrong phone number
And now today that love is dead
All that's left in my head are the worst moments
For a long time I wished you dead
Every year you left me in the lurch to look around elsewhere
The little friends you slept with would come and ring our doorbell
You're a complete slut
Today I feel free beyond description
Love is sweet . . .

Summary

Something Philosophical

When my life makes no sense
When I'm a wretched as can be
And only want one thing – suicide
Quick, quick
Something philosophical . . .

The stars, the sky, the moon
The universe, the galaxies
The question of our existence
Quick, quick
Something philosophical

I'm dying
I weep
No reason to exist
Quick, quick
Something philosophical . . .

To bring me to something essential
Something not real
Something other than this reality

Quick, quick
Something philosophical . . .

Doesn't matter what Don't know what
To make me forget
Quick, quick
Something philosophical . . .

Summary

There's Nothing Worse Than People With Principles

There's nothing worse than people with principles
Because their principles only ever apply to themselves
Because of course no one can live entirely according to the best principles in the world
And so they don't live up to their ideal life
And suffer enormously
Then they try to regulate our lives instead
According to principles they don't respect themselves
And so my life is fettered by these principles
Principles which change from one person to another
And I ask to see how all this may be justified
Where is the source of what should and should not be Life could be much simpler
Without all these futile principles

Summary

You Lied

How could you?
How could you lie to us all these years?
How could you manipulate events like that?
Why have so little faith in your children?
Did you think we couldn't take things as they were?

Couldn't adapt ourselves to new realities?

That we'd give one last cry and die?

We're not fools

We're not crazy

We're capable of seeing, hearing, acting for ourselves

Taking control of our lives and being aware of what's going on

Challenging everything from morning to night

And living in this new age of which we've been robbed

How could you?

How could you carry on like that?

How did you manage to hide so many things from us?

Everyone knew

Everyone understood

Everyone kept quiet

Everyone thought you were right

That these things must be hidden

Fear

Fear of talking

Fear of looking ridiculous

Of being destroyed

Of dying

How could you?

How could you lie to us all these years?

How could you manipulate events like that?

Some opinion you must have of your children

When you think it important they must live in ignorance!

And what would that change anyway?

Nothing

Summary

If I Were God

If I were a woman

I'd be beautiful
I'd be slim
I'd be clever
I'd be an engineer
I'd build a tower reaching up into space
I'd have 16 children who'd all be engineers
I'd understand everything happening around me
I'd embrace human rights, the poor, the orphaned
I'd be president of the company
I'd be Joan of Arc
I'd be secretary-general of the United Nations
But since I'm not a woman
I'm going to fall asleep in front of the telly with my beer

If I were President of the United States
I'd speak in the name of God
I'd be a diehard Christian
I'd speak in the name of family values
I'd be heedful of my duty and good
I'd be firm and ruthless
I'd joyfully love everyone
I'd kill the terrorist enemy
I'd be old and wise
I'd be rich as Croesus
I'd build up a strong army
I'd develop an infallible defence system
I'd rule the world
I'd be pure
I'd be perfect
I'd be the most powerful man ever
But since I'm not President of the United States,
I'm going to the bog to wipe my bum

If I were God
I'd have created you, you miserable human
I'd know what was going on in your puny brain
I'd laugh at your petty power of authority
Your shortcomings would make me laugh

It wouldn't interest me how pure you were
If you were a delinquent in the making, I'd take an interest in you
All your laws and social niceties would be meaningless to me
I'd delight in watching you destroy yourself
I wouldn't listen to your self-serving prayers
I'd know just how wretched you were in all your apparent greatness
Your life would be futile
Your death would be futile
Only my overall plan would count for anything
Only what I'd foreseen for humanity would count
Only the final reckoning after the death of humanity would count
And since I am not God
I'm going back to sleep

Summary

The British Dream

The phone rings, it's my drinking buddy from Manchester
He asks me to go with him again to Camden Palace and get rat-arsed
One pint, two pints
New Order are playing
And suddenly the world belongs to us
We dream about being rich, leaving for Los Angeles
To forget that we're poor and looking for work
Again we talk about starting our own business
It'll make millions and be quoted on the stock exchange
Three pints, four pints
We're doing justice to English pubs
Our capitalist side never really disappears
What we're looking for above all is our independence
We'll succeed at something, though we don't know what
And at once we're the brightest and most brilliant people of our generation
Five pints, six pints
Reality suddenly hits us
We're nothing and we'll never be anything

We can't take risks and throw ourselves into crazy enterprises
You have to be mad to set up a business, only lunatics succeed
Seven pints, eight pints
We're well into a coma
The whole world is mad, lunatics all of them!
What are we doing in this world?
Nine pints, ten pints
We vomit all over the toilets of Camden Palace
The two of us fall asleep at the bar
All our dreams wiped out by our natural functions
Compared to the American Dream, the British Dream is lovely!

Summary

The American Dream

I'm nineteen
Just arrived in Los Angeles
Ready for anything
Queuing up at the Zombie Bar
To meet anyone there worth meeting
I'm not fussy, sleep with influential men and women
In a world of poverty you take advantage of what's on offer
Me, me, me!
Now you'll see I'm someone of little brain, great
With a good body, great
And an endless will to get all your plans going, great
We're not in Paris, here you make millions, millions, millions
And spend it all in as long as it takes to say so
We're not here for the millions
We're here to meet the right person
I won't wipe tables any more
I've done too much of that in all the capital cities of the world
Me, I'm going to be part of the world of the rich and famous
The fearsome world of Hollywood
I'll have one hit, two hits, three hits, a flop
Drown my sorrows in alcohol, then drugs

I'll be forgotten for years
Then resurface one day when someone gives me a break
But I'll screw up again
Later go into detox
I'll babble about the Teletubbies
Time for me to hold a gun to my head
But I'll have succeeded, for just one moment
To live on another planet

Summary

I'm Ugly

You thought I was good-looking
That I was pure
That my standards were the same as yours
That I was a reflection of your true worth
A surprise and a lie

You've seen how ugly I am
What a tearaway I am
What an alcoholic
What a junkie
A surprise and a lie

Oh, I was a hypocrite
I lied
I let people believe I was something I wasn't I'm an actor
A surprise and a lie

I'm ugly
I'm a tearaway
I'm an alcoholic
I'm a junkie
Reality and truth

And who are you to ask me for a reckoning?

Who are you to accuse me?

Who are you to denounce me for fraud?

Who are you to wipe out my existence?

You're as ugly as I am

Summary

The Power of Words

A woman wrinkled with age
When you look at her she shrinks
Away from the pain of this world
I bring her a rose

Sometimes you're totally disillusioned with life
Sometimes nothing but dead flesh
Away from the pain of this world
I bring you roses

Sometimes it's the rest of the world that seems disillusioned
Wanting to remove life
Away from the pain of the world
I bring it roses

I've read about it, heard about it, seen it
A universe closed in on itself
Away from the pain of the world
There are no more roses

Summary

Oh Gloria, If You Hadn't Loved Cider So Much . . .

Oh Gloria, you were beautiful with your blonde hair

Your passions, your desires and love of fantasy
Oh Gloria, if you hadn't loved cider so much
You'd have seen your three children grow up
You'd still be driving through the streets of Isleworth
You'd be cooking a turkey for Christmas Day

Oh Gloria, you were fascinating, a true libertine
You invented reasons for going back to your ex-husband because you still loved him

You fought to save your children from poverty
You kept hens and ducks in your garden
You were typical of your generation
And had a huge impact on anyone who knew you

Oh Gloria, were you as beautiful as they say?
I've never seen you, even in a photograph
But everyone talks about you all the time
So who were you to have made such an impression on me?
I'll never know
Oh Gloria, if you hadn't loved cider so much . . .

Summary

Virtual Sheep, My Only Love!

Three minutes have gone by
The world begins to wonder
Where is he now?
Then my heart beats wildly
I turn on my computer and click on my electronic sheep
It looks at me, hums, walks around and produces strange noises
This really cheers me up
My little sheep . . .
Then I begin to cry, for everything there is to cry about Then it sneezes and I'm happy again for a moment
It jumps higher and higher
Leaps up on to the words in these lines

And this really cheers me up
And I cry more than ever
And I realise that I really love this virtual sheep
That it's the only thing in the whole world that can stop me crying
But then I realise just how sad I've become
When a virtual animal is all that I have
And I really don't know what I'd do without it
How could I have become so sad?

Summary

Letter From Prison

At night I look through the bars
I see the full moon
My gaze then falls on the cement floor
You'd believe I was thinking about remorse
Or about vengeance
But I'm not thinking about anything
My heart is empty
My gaze absent
I've stopped living
I've always held my breath
I look at the moon in the sky
I'm far away, far, far away in space
I can't remember being born
I can't remember having lived
A vague memory comes back to me
Only to be forgotten between the toilet and the stool
Human suffering
I despair of ever seeing a better day
When life becomes bearable

I hear stories through the bars
You'd believe they'd make me think
Or make my condition worse
But I don't hear anything

My soul is deaf
My life is total silence
I've stopped living
I've always turned a deaf ear
I hear the stars in the sky
I'm far away, far, far away in space
I don't remember hearing tears at my birth
I don't remember hearing anything at all
A vague snatch of speech comes back to me
Only to be forgotten between the candle and my bed
Human wretchedness
I despair of ever hearing a better day
When the cacophony of civilisation becomes bearable

Summary

Death

I lay there in silence
Blood dripping on the ground
I didn't see your gun
I'm dying for you
You've never understood anything
Unknown in the big city
Lost for days on end without seeing you
Waiting for you in Ottawa or in Paris
Where were you then when I was still alive?

I'm lying here in silence
Listening to myself die
My gun in the bracken
I'm dying for you
I've never understood anything
Unknown in the big city
Lost for days on end seeing you in my dreams
Waiting for you in Prague or in Texas
So where are you now that I'm dead?

I'm lying here in silence
Listening to you die
Whose gun was it?
You're dying for me
We've never understood anything
Unknown in big cities
Lost for days on end without seeing each other
Waiting for each other in Toronto or in London
Where are we now that we're dead?

Summary

Illumination

I saw light on the horizon
Got out of my boat to hear more clearly
Flew as far as the mountain
A wave filled the sky
Seductive music charmed me

In that light I saw
Sound travel over the fields
Flying with bats over the canal
Waves filled the sky
And I understood

All the answers were there on the horizon
In the smallest details in front of my eyes
Light, sound, waves
I flew all over the sky
With the eagle eyes of the illuminated

Summary

Madness

A tortured soul like mine
That has lost its direction
On the right road to happiness
That's complete madness

I take all souls with me in my torment
In an endless madness at the brink of day
All the outmoded constructions
Which existed only in my imagination

Oh God . . .
I see things
I hear things
Beyond my understanding

Save me!
I'm at the beginning of time
I'm at the end of time
I'm infinite

Madness has got hold of my poor soul
I've gone crazy
Hear my prayer!
It's as infinite as space

But in this universe I'm all-powerful
I control the capabilities of everything
I see beyond the horizon
The nightmare of my existence

I'm no longer myself
I never was myself
I'll never be myself
Complete madness

Summary

Alone in the World

Oh yes, some nights I turn around
And realise I'm alone in this space
That there's no way in or out that can lead me to anyone else
I'm alone in the world

I think about what's going on in the starry sky
I'm trying to understand the reality around me
I work on my own ideas, my own ideals
I know that the rest of the world exists only in my imagination

This is my life, what's in my mind
With trees and the camp fire
Nothing else exists
Nothing to poison my existence

I manage to forget you
I manage to forget that somewhere office blocks exist
Towns and their inhabitants
Duties and responsibilities

I find myself alone with my ideas
My theory of the universe
My home-made philosophy
My fate and my happiness

I'm leaving alone for space on my asteroid
I'm going out of the solar system
I'm exploring other galaxies
I'm alone in the world

Summary

Craziness

One day I woke up crazy

The way you are now
My only solution is this anarchy
They tried to lock me up for some time
Time for me to recover my spirits
Time for me to understand that life is a game
Time to understand we must always throw the dice
Time to understand we must accept hell
Pretend to enjoy it and smile at life

One day you'll all be crazy
The way I am now
Your only solution will be medical help
They'll lock you up for some time
Time for you to recover your spirits
Time for you to understand that life is a game
Time to understand we must always throw the dice
Time to understand we must accept hell
Pretend to enjoy it and smile at life.

Summary

Head in the Clouds?

You're looking at me
I'm not listening
You attract my attention
Your head's in the clouds!

I reply
No, no, my head's not in the clouds

You watch me
I'm somewhere else
You panic
You're head's in the clouds!

I reply

No, no, my head's not in the clouds

You spy on me
You're infuriated
You yell
You're head's in the clouds!

I reply
No, no, my head's not in the clouds
I'm much further away than the clouds

Summary

I Should be Dead

I can't begin to understand
Why I'm still alive
When I've tried so hard
To leave this world
To rid myself of you
In ridding myself of myself
Flee from this old country
Go to new places to escape from other people in old countries
And isolate myself on a desert island to be sure of finding the inner peace I deserve
I swallowed pills, hundreds of pills
Drank 13 bottles of whisky one after another
Threw up 13 bottles of whisky probably because I was full of pills
I bought myself all The Smiths' records Fired a bullet into my head but it went straight through my brain and I'm still alive
Good Lord, what's a man got to do to die in this world?
Take down his trousers, and jump off a bridge
Blah blah blah blah, hic!
So go to hell
I don't give a toss about you
What I'd like is to get rid of you forever

But that doesn't work
That's why I threw myself on to those electric cables
50,000 volts and I'm still alive
The only explanation
Is God, he's the one who's stopping me from dying
So He can screw himself!

Summary

I'm Your Slave

I've stopped living
I've abandoned all my plans
I've thrown my promising future out of window
I can tell the whole world of my misery and suffering
The hell you've made for me
There's no place for joy in your universe
Happiness was never part of the equation
I've stopped thinking for myself
I obey your commands
I break the law and work all the overtime I can
I work like a dog to forward your useless projects
I'm your slave
Forever, yours for eternity
I give you my life, my talents, my skills
All that for your personal advantage
I don't say a word
I listen to your sermons on my faults
I ask pity for myself
I'll get to heaven
The heaven of slaves
Amen

Summary

Life and I are Incompatible

I'm a contradiction of nature in every sense of the term
I think differently from the rest of the world from A to Z
I'm totally sure there's no justice in this world
And go further in believing that there's nothing to justify justice
I'm moved when I see how we let people die of hunger
Very surprised to find that the hungry don't rise up against those who have too much to eat
Order has been imposed on the world through fear
A social contract ignoring the fact that we're in a jungle
That, in the jungle, the law of the strongest prevails and the rest must die
But the ruling principles of these societies flirt with anarchy
There again the law of the strongest prevails but on a different level
You have to fight against life, fight against death
Impose yourself, your ideas, desires, needs, laws and rights
But everything in this world is only convention
There are no rights, no freedoms, no need of anyone else we should gratify
Nothing is good, nothing is evil
It's up to us to adapt ourselves to life

There are no noble feelings
There's only hidden self-interest
Even in aiming for heaven and going to paradise

Summary

To Die in Peace

I would so like to die in peace
Far from all thought-systems and any systems at all
Far away from everyone
Sufficient unto myself for my own survival
In conditions I know how to manage
There's nothing more you can bring me,
I'm full, look, I'm throwing up in your face

There's nothing I can bring you,
I've seen nothing but rejects everywhere
So, if I can't expect anything from you and you can't expect anything from me, why force all these duties, responsibilities and bureaucracy on me?
I'm not asking to drink the whole sea,
I'm not asking for all these rules and regulations
I'm not even asking for any sort of enjoyment
Even less that my needs are satisfied
I'm asking to be able to stay sitting here on the ground until death catches up with me
But you never grant me this right
Sad world!

Summary

Dear God, Let Me Be Done With It

I've looked at your planet
Your creatures
I can't identify with them
They've rejected me

I've admired creation
In every place
I can't identify with it
I want to stop existing

What a wonderful possibility!
Cancer, pneumonia, some incurable illness
Why haven't you picked me?
But I was born dead

Oh why?
Why have you let me suffer so much?
Why force me to act?
Why force me to exist?

No goal to aim for
No social success to look for
No love which will make me happy
No personal satisfaction worth the effort

Permanent guilt
Guilt at the heart of me
Guilt I don't understand

The desire to achieve great things without asking anything in return

So let me die

Summary

Come On, Damn It, I've Got a Life to Live

I'm a blob, a big ball of flesh bursting its skin
Like the rest of the world, I'm slowing down
I take ages to finish the smallest task
I sleep more than I live

It takes all the motivation I can muster to get myself out of bed Going anywhere is quite an adventure, it takes so long to psych myself into Leaving the building, taking the tube, oh God, it's so complicated
For a head as befuddled as mine

That needs three cups of coffee to function even minimally

I'm a blob when I should be invigorated

Dash out of this bedroom!

Get out and never come back, enjoy life!

Find all possible motivation!

Be inspired for good to live a full and exciting life!

I need to find some ruling passion soonest!

Need to be strong instead of passive!

Full of energy, functioning, productive!

Come on, damn it, I've got a life to live!

Summary

Life

I looked for you on the Californian coast where someone had shown me an extraordinary view

I looked for you in TV studios where all our dreams are built up

I looked for you at a table in Caesar's Palace between two slot machines

And I looked for you in woods, on mountains where I was strangely bored

I thought I'd find you in the most famous tourist spot in Barcelona, flying over an old theme park now in ruins, that inspired me for a split second

I thought my eyes would be opened in front of the windows in the red light district of Amsterdam, but I was more afraid than anything else

Then I walked through the hotel where they hold the Cannes festival, sat on the rim of a toilet which Harrison Ford had probably used before me but I felt nothing

I opened the proceedings in front of 6000 people, that gave me a buzz for about thirty seconds

I let everything drop, I showed myself out this time, for a change

I wanted to speak to the whole planet but no one wanted to speak to me

Suddenly they changed their minds and now the whole planet wants to speak to me

But I've nothing more to say to them and what they say is extraordinarily banal

Sometimes you meet magical people and spend wonderful moments with them

I haven't met any for the last five years and I despair

No one stands out from the crowd, no one has a vision to fulfil

Their zest for life has thrown them into alcohol and drugs

Making them happy for a split second

And making their existence bearable a little longer

But it's destroying them and finishing them off today

I've lost all hope

Summary

Part 2

Rap/Heavy Metal Songs (more extreme)

We may still save humanity in America

Don't lie
You have always known it
All we need is not love
All we need is money
Money is everything
It feeds your wonderful children
It saves your marriage
Which was doomed from the start anyway
It is the only thing by which you can valorize yourself
How much are you worth?
Do you deserve to be alive?
Has your life any kind of meaning?
Only through money can we assess your worthiness
To be alive
Money is the only thing that can bring you to freedom
Really help you escape your miserable existence
What we call reality
Money is the dream come true
The only dream you ever had
The only answer to all your hopes
Don't deny it
Money is everything to you
You can never have too much
You can never feel guilty for rolling all over it
Money is the only way to happiness
Trying to convince anyone of the opposite
Can only come from people
Who have accepted their true lack of potential in getting it
Their unworthiness to being part of this society
That we have painfully built for ourselves
For centuries now
Money is everything
Money is all there is Money is your only salvation

It changes everything
It saves everything
It is the basis of all your values
Protecting your family
That little nuclear family
So ready to explode
As soon as money runs out
Say it after me
Money is everything!
Money is all I need!
Money is my only escape!
Get it
At any cost, any sacrifice
Life demands it
Your family demands it
Your existence, your values, your worthiness
Depend on it
Do it!
Get it!
More money!
Is all you need!
Focus, concentrate, find a way
Find your true way
To the only meaningful thing there is Money
For everyone, forever
To feel good about yourself
To create happiness all around
This dream existence you have been told
Was your only way out
The only reason why you ever existed
It all comes down to one thing
Saving the world
Making this world a happier place
Get humanity out of its eternal misery
Only one solution
Only one goal
Your only real true independence

Useless to lie
Even to yourself
Deep down you know
No need to be ashamed of it
Our whole society has been built on that one principle
No matter what you have to do to get it
Or how you will go about it
Just keep in mind one single idea
And you will be saved
There's nothing else in this world
Against your downfall
Learn to love it
Or else you'll be a slave
Repeat after me
Money is everything!
Good boy, Good girl
As long as you still believe in money
We may still save humanity
In America

Summary

Awareness in San Francisco

Have I gone everywhere in this world
Enjoy my own little awareness once in a while Alone yet in another hotel room
Wondering about my own individuality
In a sea of billions
How insignificant I can be Wondering if I can make any difference
And if it is at all important
If I do or not
Maybe there was never any meaning to it
Just a fact that needs to be accepted
We are six billions
I am one

I am aware that I exist
I have my own individuality
Should enjoy it
Go for a walk
Look at the sea in the Bay
Look at the constructions
The bridge
Another symbol of our so-called greatness
The Valley of Silicon
Of artificial intelligence
Wonder if it has any awareness
Individuality in a world of multiplication
Of the same, over and over again
That one voice
At this point
Cannot make any difference
Indulging
Fighting
Surviving
Still have that chance to see more
Explore more than the next one
Reach San Francisco
See that bridge for myself
And wonder
In my awareness
What it all means
If anything
We've built a valley of silicon
Like we grew a valley of wine trees
Can artificial intelligence get drunk?
Can it wonder about its existence?
Can it have awareness?
And would my life be better
Without that awareness?
Mindless existence
I'm in San Francisco
And that's all there is to it
Just go to the sea

Just look at it
Do not think
It is only painful
There is no answer here
To all these questions
Why torture ourselves
Why invent philosophy?
Can I just live for a change?
Forget my individuality?
My awareness?
This intelligence which serves no real purpose
To my own happiness?
Can I not just enjoy being alive?
Without having to put back everything
In its own context?
Can I not just for once
Be in San Francisco
And not be aware of it?
Of anything?
As a meaningless fact
I'm here now
Let's just enjoy it?
Without throwing me into thinking mode
Of self doubt
That this world could actually be real Meaningful
With some sort of great purpose
That we just can't figure out?
I'm sorry
I cannot accept that it is about love and reproduction
Multiplication of more useless existence
Who will one day end up in Silicon Valley
And wonder
Why it is that they are alive
When they see that bridge
In wonder
To what symbol we were able to construct
To give a reason, a meaning

To something that has none
Awareness is perhaps not that magical
A bit of programming could simulate that Individuality is perhaps just an illusion
We are all thinking the same
We are all the same
We are one
This feeling of individuality
This feeling of awareness
It's programmed on that carbon chip
Which is my brain
I guess God never knew about miniaturization
Might have been the lack of competition
The lack of a desire to make tons of money
My brain is about to explode
And I am limited in my understanding
To the program
Cannot go beyond
Cannot understand beyond
I'm in San Francisco
No need to think anymore
Just exist
If I can Reach that bridge
Be in awe in front of what we were able to build
In terms of symbols
And especially
Stop processing
Avoid the only conclusion which seems right
To terminate the processing process forever
Avoid the urge to jump off that bridge
To the great darkness
I tell you
Really worth being aware
In San Francisco

Summary

My Rough Edges

You had one good look at me
You hated me
Then you had another good look in time
I'm likable
Once you move beyond my rough edges

My God!
You have only scratched the surface
You have no idea, do you?
Of where I am
If only you could hear this
If only I could let you hear this
You might have a better understanding Of how I really feel
Not about you
But about the world we live in

I am at the point where I am wondering
If existing is worth it
And you're talking about
Am I likable or not?
Am I capable of emotions and sensitivity or not
Of understanding

No I am not
I have other worries
Other stuff to deal with
I can't even stop and worry
About the details of what you are worried about
I am beyond all that

My rough edges
Whether I do it on purpose or not
Am I likable or not
I could not care less
When I only feel like taking a gun

And shoot you in the head

I do not want to be with you

I do not want to talk to you

I certainly do not want to spend time

Worrying about what you said

What I said

Feeling guilt

For my rough edges

Looking for a liberation

Of the consequences of my smallest action

My smallest word

Which seems to have quite an impact on you

I thought we were the same

You are obviously dying in superficiality

Believing in your own intelligence

When you cannot even think beyond your new found husband

Destiny

And if you are worth it or not

If you should be on a diet or not

No you're not worth it

You are a pain

You are capable

But you're more trouble than it is worth

Go back to where it is that you come from

And die there

I never ask you in my life

I could very well exist without you

You're not worth the pain

Shut up!

Leave me alone!

Get out of my life!

Or I'll blow up your brain!

How's that for my rough edges?

Summary

This is a Declaration of War

(chorus:)

I have not started the war

I never do

But I sure

Will finish it

Until none of us survive

You did that to me

You did not think about the consequences

Is that your best shot?

Because look

I'm still here

You perhaps thought

That there would be no tomorrow

That I would not be back to suffer you everyday

That I was no longer your worry

You were wrong

I am back with a vengeance

I have not started the war

I never do

But I sure

Will finish it

Until none of us survive

There is no forgiveness possible

In that kind of mind game you decided to play

I cannot forget what you just did

I cannot try to like you now, can I?

I can only hate you

And do everything I can

To destroy you
Before you destroy me

Man!

You wanna play that game?
You will find out that it is very destructive indeed

Like in any war
There will be no winner
We will all be dead at the end of it

I have not started the war
I never do
But I sure
Will finish it
Until none of us survive

What choice have you given me?
You did that to me
It was unjustified
They saw through your game
Or you were not convincing enough
You could not find the smoking gun
Because there was none

Don't worry, I'll find one
I'll succeed in destroying you
Because I am not like you
I do not play these mind games
Under any slight trifle
I make my move afterwards
In self defense
When I have the perfect opportunity

No trifles
Just plain hard undeniable facts
About your incompetence
And your mind games
To bury your inadequacy

This is a declaration of war
I declare that I am now going to have one goal only
Your utter destruction

I have not started the war
I never do
But I sure
Will finish it
Until none of us survive

You should have thought about the consequences
The end always justifies the means
It's personal now
I don't care to die
Do you?

I have not started the war
I never do
But I sure
Will finish it
Until none of us survive

Summary

You can rape me all you want

You can rape me
Violate me all you want
Shoot me in the head afterwards
I'm so beyond caring

Make me your slave
Ask me to suck your dick
Suck your brain
I'm so beyond caring

Tell me all your bullshit, I can take it
Only need to drink myself to death afterwards
To forget that...
I'm so beyond caring

Walk all over me!
Destroy me!
Kill me!
I'm so beyond caring!

What is worst that you could ask from me?
You will think of something
I'm sure
I'm so beyond caring

One day I'll put a stop to this
One day I'll be the one dictating
One day I will kill you where you stand
One day...

I won't be beyond caring

Summary

The World is filled with Backstabbers

(chorus:)

In this world

This is all there is left to do

Backstab happily my friend!

Before they backstab you to death

It is ridiculous

We're all walking around

With our little dagger in our right hand

We use it all time

To prove how incompetent everyone else is

To prove how great we are
But I am asking you
How great are we really?
If to prove it we need a dagger in our right hand?
If we need to kill everyone else to reach the top
When there is not even a top to speak of?

The world is filled with backstabbers
Never forget it, never let your guard down
If you do not kill them first
They certainly will

Your first ever vibe about anyone tells it all
You are warned the very first second
And yet you think you might escape it
Somehow

Escape your destiny?
In a world full of backstabbers?
You must be dreaming
Be one of those optimistic persons

They always die first
It's a law of nature
They are so easy to manipulate
In a world of manipulators

If you are not already calculating your next move
You are doomed
In a world filled with backstabbers
You can only yourself become one

In this world
This is all there is left to do
Backstab happily my friend!
Before they backstab you to death

Summary

They've been testing me, like a rat!

They dropped me in that little labyrinth
There was nowhere to go
So I bang my head in every wall
I've become famous for it
Then they subjected me to the worse treatments
Just to find out how resistant I was How much I could endure before cracking
I never did
They were impressed
Now they have added a new level
For me to run everywhere into Somehow along the way
I've become aware
That I was just a rat
That I was just being tested
So I decided to stop playing the game
I did not care to bang myself in the walls anymore
I did not care for the second level
Their new testing ground
Soon I will be declared a great disappointment
A rat without any cleverness
Looking at the sky
Hoping for some salvation
Not playing the game anymore
Not eating or drinking anymore
Letting myself die in my corner
I will be judged a failure
When in fact
I saw through it all
And it depressed me so much
That I'd rather let myself die
Than play their game
From my point of view
This is my only success

Summary

You're not so cool after all

I used to think you were so cool
Being in Los Angeles
Enjoying success and all
And I was nothing
How could I be as cool as you?
Living a miserable existence
Rejected by everyone

You were everything I wanted to be
I wanted to be just like you
As cool as you
I was envious
Jealous
Was I supposed to be born cool?
As it looked so natural on you

But then I started to study you a bit better
I got to know you better
I started to see the cracks
Beyond that cool exterior
There is such a small human being inside
Ten times more worried and frightened than I am Paranoid, lost, in search for love and acceptance
Not cool at all!

Were you not supposed to be a god?
Stronger than I could ever be?
Not worried about anything
As if everything came to you naturally
Not caring about anything
Especially not small people like me?

What a discovery
I am stronger than you will ever be
Your cool exterior was hiding
Your nothingness
Your tons of psychological problems
You are so small!
You are nothing!

I don't care anymore for cool people
If anything
I am cooler than any of the cool people
Because I am real, not fake
I don't care for what people think of me
I'm just trying to survive, all right?
I am myself
And that makes me cooler
Than you

You're not so cool after all
So just get lost!

Summary

What's Your First Name Again?

Wasn't it you who looked disdainfully at me that day because I was only a street ruffian?

Wasn't it you who pushed me out of the way with your foot when I was lying crushed and dead on the pavement?

Wasn't it you who danced in all your pride and self-confidence with such petty vainglory that today it makes me laugh?

I remember, it was you who imposed your world-view on me

Your closed and ready-made interpretation of the universe

With its strictly limited horizons and several long, punishing steps to climb in order to get anywhere at all

How wonderful it seemed to me then that you should make me your mirror

I hadn't realised the terrible potential that was slumbering in me

The infinite energy that was going to inspire the masses
The army that would follow me to trample on you at my rallying cry
But I'm not content with that, it's not enough
Because I'm not like you, I've no need of that Which you wanted so much, which you thought you had and never will have I've been through the hell you described to me as paradise
And I'm the only one to realise that something other than that life exists
What was your first name again?

Summary

A Gun at Your Head

A gun at your head
To make you understand
The eternal void
The insignificance of our destiny
Now I see there's nothing beyond the horizon
Nothing to expect from nothing
The irony of our existence
I'll throw

A bomb under your seat
To make you understand
The darkness of our logic
The violence in everything
Now I see there's no hope beyond the horizon
Nothing to hope for from anyone
The hell of our consciousness
I'll start

A world war on your head
To make you understand
The evil in this world
The uselessness of the planet
I see now that there's nothing to see beyond the horizon
Nothing to expect from space

The illusion of science
I'll explode

Summary

Have you lost Faith in Destiny?

Sometimes the most fervent believer doubts his own beliefs
Sometimes the most certain person in the world is suddenly unsure
Sometimes the most optimistic people become the most pessimistic

There is no reason to doubt
Haven't God always been there?
The one up there who will suddenly open the gate
Of money, successful jobs and eternal love?

No reason to live in the dark
No possible way that once again everything will not happen as it should be
To maximize life and rewards and perfection

Oh why the doubts then?
Why allow these questions, uncertainties and despair?
Should everything not happen before these creep up?

Does God always need to test its subjects, its creatures, its bugs?
Has he not got better things to do?
Or is it just a program fulfilling its purpose?
Or perhaps it takes time for a perfect timeline to get all the elements working together?

I don't have the time for that
Everything needs to fall into place instantly
My future needs to be drawn on the spot without the wait and despair

I need to take on the world right now!
I need to face the ugly face of humanity while it is still hot!
I want to take over the world in my march towards freedom!

God! You are listening right now, aren't you?
What the heck are you waiting for?
Things need to happen fast
Or else I'm gonna start killing people
There are about 30 desperate persons living in my block
Awaiting their death for being as lost as I am Doing nothing more productive for society than I am
What the heck are you doing?
Are they supposed to wait there until you find something for them to do?
Am I supposed to rot here until you find me something to do?
Or should I provoke the circumstances
Create my own destiny out of nothing?

I will take over the world by storm
My destiny awaits me
I guess nothing falls from the sky
I've got to make it happen
I am preparing my own revolution
And it is going to hurt
I have not lost faith in destiny!

Summary

Drowning in my sorrows

Oh dear I went back to where I came from
I had these memories of where I had been
I could no longer live in my memories
Drowning in my whisky every night
Drowning in my sorrows
I had to touch again what it is that I had experienced
For the one moment that I felt I was alive
In London close to Paddington where I used to live and hope
For a better future without realizing that this was it
Nothing better would ever come
Me dying on these garbage bags on Harrow Road
Writing some useless ideas that will never see the light of day

Oh god I was happy then!
It took me to go back home to understand
A lost song to bring me back there
And I left once again my loved ones
I left everything behind again
To go and live this desperate life
There is no cure to my misery
It is made of romantic and horrible feelings
The memory that keeps me going
Kensal Green Cemetery
Maida Vale and Westbourne Park
This is not me, but it was for just a moment
A glimpse into what we are missing
Something unreachable that I have reached
And now I cannot live without it
Please drive me there
Let me die there
In this memory of a perfect moment of desperation
That meant everything

Summary

Oh please let me be happy again!

I am not sure what makes me happy
I have been the happiest at the bottom of my misery
Though I do not wish to reach the bottom again
But I wish happiness all the same

Oh please let me be happy again!

Whether it would be in the Midi of France, lost
Nowhere to go and nothing to think about
No responsibilities or obligations
Just the where I am now and what to do to think about

Oh please let me be happy again!

I could do with erasing my identity and my debts
I could do with starting from zero once again
I could wish for no possession of any kind
Nothing to my name and no food

Oh please let me be happy again!

When I have nothing and no one to love!
When I am all alone and lost somewhere I know nothing about!
When I am naked to the bone with no past history
I just want to remain innocent

Oh please let me be happy again!

Let me walk on these walls by the mountain
Let me forget that I have ever existed
Let me hope that I never need to think again
I want to be a blank storage device looking at the sky

Oh please let me be happy again!

Nothing to achieve
No dream to pursue
No meaning to life to understand
No one to poison my existence

I want to die here alone...
And then I will be happy!

Summary

I never felt so powerful!

When suddenly I have proven you wrong
When suddenly I realized I knew more than you will ever do
I may be young but old age does not bring this wisdom as it was always thought

On the contrary, you will quickly bring this world to an end

And you dare calling yourself wise
Telling me I have no culture
Telling me I am worth nothing
Telling me I know nothing about this world

I guess you were talking about yourself
Because I don't feel so powerless
I don't feel that I don't know anything
I would feel great anyway for not knowing anything about you and your culture

I don't care about all that you have learned in your long years on this planet
I wish I never got around learning even the basics of it
I only know because you obliged me without ever asking me
I was too young and too stupid then to tell you that it was all meaningless

You can die happy to know something
It will always be nothing anyway
Because you failed to understand what was truly important
That all that is hollow

I pity you... more than you pity me for my ignorance
I pity you... for your ignorance

Summary

Everyone needs to start somewhere

This is where I started
Mopping the floor
Packing the groceries for you madam
Delivering things to the world
Making club sandwiches and pizzas for the planet

Out of desperation come great things
Out of misery come revolutionary philosophies

Out of hell come big new political systems

Give me a break

I am sick

Great things are never great for too long

Revolutionary philosophies have always been questioned

New political systems always fail the people

Everyone needs to start somewhere

Unfortunately

Everyone needs to end somewhere

This is where I ended

Mopping the floor

Packing the groceries

Delivering things

Making club sandwiches and pizzas

Just how it should be...

Summary

History has got nothing to do with you

Were you there when the first man landed on the Moon?

Yes, I know, you were alive

But have you done anything to make it happen?

No.

Were you there when the chart of rights and liberties was added to the Constitution?

Yes, I know, you feel it to this day and you are proud of it

But have you done anything to make sure it would be respected?

No.

Were you there when the first atomic bomb exploded?

Yes, I know, you enjoyed it and freaked out all at the same time

But have you done anything to stop it from happening again?

No.

Were you there when the world was created?

Yes, I know, you live by the rules of God

But have you done anything to preserve this creation?

No.

Were you there when Hitler was killed?

Yes, I know, you feel like you have won the war

But what the hell have you got to do with the war?

Nothing.

Are you at all alive?

Have you at all changed the life of more than a few people?

Why do you exist?

You have nothing to do with history!

Why don't you just die?

No one will miss you as you do not make any difference

Your useless routine

Your poor judgment

Your insignificant existence

I'm so sorry for you

You are so small

You have never created anything

You will never change anything on a massive scale

Or even on a small scale

I really don't understand why we allow you to live

You are useless

At best you're an annoyance

A parasite

Just like the rest of the world

Summary

Guilty!

Am I guilty?

Of wondering what you would look like with a knife in your back?

Of imagining your bloody face on your computer desk?

Of secretly dreaming of decapitating you on my way to work?

Of thinking about blowing up this place?

Am I guilty?

I would like to be racist for once and piss on you

I hope I could still be respected after that

I wish I could be all alone on this planet

I want to eradicate the human race

Am I guilty?

I am giving you all the ammunition you will ever need

Here is the proof that I am a mental case

You have all you need to put me in prison

Or do you?

Am I guilty?

Do what you want

Believe what you say

You might think I can no longer go into politics now

But you would be wrong

Are they guilty?

Easy to dig some dirt

Does it matter what I am saying here?

Let's see how far I can go despite my words

People forget, people don't care

Who's guilty?

If you'd finally understand that they are worse than I am

Because they don't only think about it, they act upon it

If I was allowed to try and if I'd care

I would be a very successful President

Summary

Dear God

What am I doing here?
Oh God, I don't know
I must be lost
God help me!
This is sin city
This is too much
For my poor soul
I'm trying
I'm trying very hard
To remain pure and simple
I must be the most complicated
Human being on the planet
I must be the most impure
Human being on the planet
I am awaiting salvation
Here is my confession
I have lied
I have stolen
I have done much worse
Believe me
Is there no salvation for me?
I'm condemned
To walk around for eternity
Looking for my way out
Nowhere to be found
Repeating the same things
Over and over again
I'm the ghost of destiny
God, please help me
To get out of this nightmare
I never wanted it
I never thought this is where I would be

I was not thinking
I drank myself to death every night
Just to forget
Just to forget to sin
I guess in the end
It is just not possible
To not sin
I guess in the end
It is just not possible
To be as perfect as you are
I guess in the end
It is just not possible
To be God

Summary

Child Suicide

If I had brought into this world
A child as depressed as I am
I would be depressed now
Why would I want to bring into this world
A child?
What is there for him or for her to be happy about?
Thirty years of studying a very specific and boring subject?
Being bullied by other students and teachers alike?
A high paying job in the corporate world?
Being bullied by colleagues and bosses alike?
If that child did not commit suicide after that I'd be lucky
What hope could I give him or her?
In a better world where happiness exists?
When I know damn well that it is not possible?
That everyone they will ever meet
Will just cause them problem after problem
And sap any kind of energy they might have?
Backstabbing is all there is down here

What has this world got to offer to anyone?
Let alone a new child born with hopes and dreams?
Nothing, you can only drive them all to suicide
It is a very sad story
Just as well
That I am the end of the family line

Summary

Study your symbolism, for god's sake!

When I say that I want to shoot you in the head
What I really mean
Is that I don't like what you are doing

When I say that we need to blow up this planet
What I really mean
Is that really we should try a little bit harder to be nice to people

When I say that this country is going to hell and everyone should die
What I really mean
Is that frankly, I need a little bit more money to finish the month

When I am saying that you should go back into the anus of your mom
What I really mean
Is that you could smile at me once in a while

When I say die bitch!
What I really mean
Is, oh for God's sake, I do mean it, die bitch!
No seriously, I mean, go see a psychologist dear, it might help us all

When I say I had enough and I will commit suicide
What I really mean
Is let's have sex pumpkin, it has been a week, you know?

When I say that no one deserves to live

What I really mean
Is that, well, I'm not sure what that one really means
Perhaps I really mean it after all

Summary

Desperate for a gun in America

That's right
I so think that the solution to
All humanity's problems
Hang with me owning a gun

Believe me!
I need a gun!
Help me get one!
Now!

I could achieve great things in America with a gun
I could finally get that world to work
To think!
I'm sure of it

This is the only language anyone can understand
That is the only language I can understand
Give me a gun!
A big one

I'll change the world
I'll make it a success
I'll make you all the profit you'll ever need
Holding the planet at ransom

That's my destiny
That's what I was born for I'll crush them
I'll crucify them all

To our own advantage

I'll make them understand the urgency at hand

Got to meet my deadline

Got to make a few millions here

Got to turn you into Jesus-Christ himself

You've got it all wrong!

Forget these damned management consultants

I don't need more processes

I don't need a new job description

I don't need a new Manager

And more stuff to do with no time for it

I need a gun!

That's all I need!

I'll make your dream come true

I'll put them all in line

I'll collect the money

We'll make it!

I assure you

You'll be rich

Beyond your wildest dreams

Forget all your bollocks

If you want real and tangible results

Stop spending millions on management consultants

Just give me a gun...

Summary

Let me buy you out just to shut you up

That's it

I'm annoyed now

I'm no longer amused

We're in America here
I've got a few billions behind me
You better shut up
Or
I might just buy you out
And shut your big mouth out
For good

What the fuck are you talking about?
We're purer than pure
We define what's pure here, you see
We define what should be done
Where the money should go
What the government should do
We dictate around here

I'm sorry you didn't know
You're about to find out
I'm not sorry to say

I have unlimited powers
I have infinite budgets
Just to shut you up
You'll never know what hit you
I can tell you that for free

But since you do not listen
You're about to find out
How much this will cost you

I don't need to ask permission
I don't need to consider your future
You're dead and that's it

With any luck
I might not even need
To get my big guns out
You'll die peacefully

Just as expected
You're such a wimp
You'll crawl out at the first alarm bell

This is how we do business in America
Shut up now
Or
One way or another
I can assure you
You're dead

Summary

The Mormon's Disney Land in Utah

Too late, I'm a Mormon now!
Just as planned
I went to Salt Lake City
Visited the Temple
The Disney World they built
To convince me
That Jesus-Christ was the way forward

Didn't have to read the Mormon's Book
Didn't have to hear their philosophy
Didn't have to hear the truth
I just had to be guided around
By the most beautiful and pure
Utah girl there is Sitting down by the Tabernacle
With her Mormon's blond hair

Want a trip
To this 1.5 billion dollars Mormon's shopping mall darlin'?
I've seen the weirdest dresses there
My God, must belong to Jesus' mother herself
You would look so pure in this

I tell ya!
Oh dear, oh dear
It was just too much for my poor mind
I fell in love instantly
Ready to sell my soul to whomever
To get her forever and ever
Never mind that divorce is not an option
That cancelling a marriage is an alien concept
I want as many babies to pop out
Of between her two legs
As possible
I'm sold
I'm the biggest Mormon you have ever seen
Where do I pay my tithing or tilting or whatever?
40% of my salary (10% before tax)
And all you needed to convince me
Was that angel
Of a Utah girl
That you have walking us around
Your Mormon's Disney Land

Notice of Resignation, The Perfect Sample Letter

Please accept this letter as my notice of resignation, effective today
Finally! I got the courage to tell you to get lost!
This wasn't an easy decision
You bet! The easiest I have ever made
Because I am grateful for the rewarding employment I've had with your company
Ah! One more week, I would have been dead, or I would have killed everyone
But after long hours of consideration
Well, one long second in fact
I have made my decision and it is now final
Don't you think to do me a counter offer, you would need to sack the whole office before I even reconsider my decision
I will shortly after return to London
You can keep your Los Angeles all to yourself, I don't want it

It's been a great pleasure working with you
A fucking nightmare that was
I wish you continued success
Well in fact, I could not care less
Please feel free to call on me if I can help to ensure a smooth transition
Don't call us, we won't call you
Sincerely
Go fuck yourself!

Summary

Propaganda

I live in the most beautiful country in the world
The Prime Minister is the most intelligent being on the planet
He's challenged everything
I now have enough to eat

The economy's rolling in money
My job pays a fortune compared to what I'd earn elsewhere
It's elsewhere that people are dying of hunger
While I live in the richest country of all

It's crazy, money falls from the sky
But the district I work in is dedicated to finance
What does this mean?
It means everything because I have enough to eat

Life is wonderful!
I weep with joy!
Look at me, happiness is written on my face
We live on the most beautiful planet in the universe!

Tie me up, I can't carry on any more
Joy and happiness are choking me
Everything's so perfect that it screeches like the tyres of my new car
Aaaaahh! At last God has heard our prayers

Such a beautiful country!
Such a rich culture!
Such a wonderful system!
It's too much. Kill me, someone

I want to let everything go
I want someone to launch me into space
I want to escape way beyond our solar system
With a gun in my hand tonight and tomorrow be no more

Summary

Frontline Terrorism

I've got no pity at all for the old granny believing in her God
No pity at all for the bloke in his suit and tie dying in conformity
No pity at all for that woman fighting for recognition
No pity at all for that child who'll become a monster in our image
I've got no pity at all for anyone

Why should I take pity on you?
Why do you deserve to live?
Why is your daughter's life worth more than the lives of 7 billion other parasites on this planet?
Do you think I give a toss about your dog, your cat or your goldfish?
All you've ever done all my life is to make me sick

Oh, you were capable of finer feelings
Of loving your neighbour
But it's a bit late to prove it
If you haven't already done it, you never will You're incapable of understanding, of good deeds or of love

I won't be a hypocrite, won't hide away to say what I think
When the bomb went off, I was on the front line
When the time came, I was the one who lit the fuse

You never wept for my dead, I won't weep for yours
You are the catalyst of this terrorism

Summary

A Serious Problem with Authority

Ever since I was born you've told me what I should do with myself
I've never been free to take the slightest little decision
And if I once stood up to tell you I wouldn't do something
Once just walked away to do something else
That something else soon became your Plan B
I went on doing whatever you wanted me to do
And you wonder why I hate authority
Why I don't take kindly to criticism
Why I can't stand people telling me what to do
It's because you've planted these powerful authority figures everywhere
At every level of my existence
Some sort of authority is fencing me in Checking up on me, spying on what I do
And if I object, however feebly, an army descends on me
An army of parents, teachers, supervisors, directors, priests
Psychologists, policemen, soldiers, agents of all sorts of outfits
What counts is order, conformity's the thing, total peace without compromise Well, I'm telling you I'm not the one who has a problem with authority
Too many people have too much authority over everyone else in the world
Don't be surprised when everything blows up in your face
When someone suddenly pulls a gun and fires it among you at random
You were asking for it and you'll find it yet

Summary

I'm Going to Find Myself a Whore

Beautiful slave of this world
Preferably blonde

Not too old
Between twelve and fifteen

A virgin if possible
Wearing high heels
Already in a mess
And dependent on hard drugs

Don't you dream too?
Have an extraordinary longing to get out of your rut?
A destiny to fulfil?
A desire to change the world?

Well then you've found me
I'm your whore
Beautiful slave of this world
Still a virgin

I'm a surprise
A romantic dinner before screwing
Candles burning all night long
Fireworks blowing up in your face

I'm going to find myself a whore
She'll be dark
She'll be old
She'll be dirty

You've found me
I'm your whore
Beautiful slave of this world
In a firework display blowing up in your face

Summary

I'm Your Inflatable Virgin Mary

Blasphemy!
Screw me!
I give myself to you entirely
Isn't that what you wanted?
Screw me!
Blasphemy!
I'll give birth to Christ the all-powerful
That shit will emerge from my guts
To destroy everything it meets on its way
Cause wars in the world
Blasphemy!
That'll be the fruit of this bottomless hole, endless suffocation
Dead men on top of me, blood all over the universe
Screw me!
So that Christ in his turn can screw
The whole world
Bogged down in this muddy marsh
This thick fog
Blasphemy!
The ways of God are impenetrable
Screw me!
The new improved Virgin Mary
Who spawns hell on Earth
For thousands of years
Until there's a perfect being A Super Being
Christ decomposed to humanity's tune
We've achieved the new age
Of a frustrated virgin
Who gave birth to the end of the world
The ways of God are impenetrable
Blasphemy!

Summary

I Know the Name of God

I know the name of God
It's a good bottle of brandy
That I drink at night in small mouthfuls
Before I come to understand his infinite wisdom

I know the name of God
It's a good bottle of whisky
That I drink at night in large mouthfuls
Before I come to understand his infinite strength

I know the name of God
It's a good bottle of Scotch
That I drink at night in large glasses
Before I come to understand his infinite ability

I know the name of God
It's an endless series of cans of beer
That I drink at night till I can drink no more
Before I come to understand the incomprehensible

Summary

Alien Nation

We'll all be dead within a few years
It was written in the sky
Every single lunatic predicted it
We will destroy ourselves

How can it be any other way?
We've been working at it for years
Everything we do and say
Alienate the whole world

We have forgotten all about diplomacy
For one good reason
Diplomacy never worked

And diplomacy will never work

So what about the sound of my canons?

Or I could just drop a few missiles

And get a few tanks on their way

A nice nuclear bomb with that?

You thought alienation was a problem

We alienate them, they go to war

They alienate us, we go to war

It's a vicious circle

We alienate them

They freak out

They don't respond to diplomacy

We eradicate them

So they armed themselves, they become terrorists

They kill us, we are even more alienated

So we go there and finish the job

We might as well finish it for real

Life can be so simple sometimes

We just cannot make the right and final decision

That is required to stop the alienation

Just destroy the whole damn humanity!

So we can finally live in peace

Summary

I Could Pretend To Be The Devil

I could pretend I'm a young lad

Still virginal in every sense of the word

Who has never made love and is desperate

Who cries every night in his room

I could pretend I'm an anarchist
At the head of an organisation about to murder a whole lot of people
Because I've never lived and I'm desperate
Plotting alone every night in my basement

I could pretend to be a maniac
Who has raped more than one madwoman
Made love with the entire planet
And could meet you any night in a dark alley

I could pretend to be a madman
Who has killed several important people
Who kills every night, even in his sleep
And every night targets his next victim

I could pretend to be God the Father, creator of heaven and earth
Who plays games with other people's fate
Letting them be born, controlling them, killing them as he sees fit
And every seven days creating another hell on earth

But as long as I'm only pretending
Can you arrest me? Imprison me? Banish me? Execute me?
You have no proof because there is no proof
I'm just like the boy next door
But with an unbounded imagination
And for you, that's disturbing
